ATTUCKS FAVORED IN SECTIONAL

"BAD, BAD ATTUCKS": Here is the Crispus Attucks squad that so many people have been raving about. They were scheduled to open their tourney play Friday morning at 9:45 against Sacred Heart. The winner of that game was to meet the Ben Davis-Decatur Central winner at 7:00 Friday night. If Attucks and Tech are both successful, they will play at 2:15 Saturday afternoon. (See tourney chart on Page 11.) Shown in the photo are (standing left to right) Charles Toliver, Larry O'Bannon, John Davis, Bob Jewell, William Gardner, Hallie Bryant, Charlie West and DeJuan Boyd; (front row) Charles Cook, Bailey Robertson, Coach Ray Crowe, Leahman Covington and Benny Cook.

Freed on Bond in Narcotics Case

Mrs. Mary Higgins, 38-year-old Milwaukee resident who was arrested here Feb. 3 on narcotics charges, waived a hearing before the U.S. Commissioner and was bound over to the Federal Grand Jury this week.

Charged with illegally possessing narcotics, Mrs. Higgins who police say is "one of the biggest dope runners in the Middle West," was free on $1,000 bond Monday.

She and four other persons were arrested in the Shan Hotel, 210 1/2 West New York st., when three squads of police raided the West-side hotel investigating reports of a "cocaine party."

Arresting officers confiscated a large quantity of narcotics from the room, to which they had to force entry. The officers reported that all the arrested persons bore needle marks in the arms and legs.

Mrs. Higgins and her husband, William, are leaders of a big dope ring that operates between Indianapolis and Chicago, according to police. Her husband was not arrested.

Man Tried to Lure Her into Car, Girl Charges

The case of a man who allegedly attempted to molest a local policeman's daughter was confined to Saturday morning in Municipal Court IV when it came up before Judge Alex M. Clark last Monday.

Lovell M. Pratt, 28-year-old salesman, is accused of trying to lure the 16-year-old daughter of Patrolman Alfred Finnell into his car.

The young high school student was walking west on 16th street from the Columbia carline Friday evening of last week when a car, allegedly driven by Pratt, pulled up in front of her and the driver told her to "get in."

The girl crossed 16th street at Yandes and continued walking. The car, headed east, whipped around.

Babies Born in Ill., Tex. "Floating Free"

CHICAGO (ANP)—Two oddities in birth were reported in different sections of the country Sunday, in which infants delivered by caesarian section were found to be "floating free" in their mothers' abdomens.

One case occurred in Hillsboro, Texas, where a seven-pound baby girl was born to Mrs. Florida Pennington, 38. The child was not connected in any way with its mother's womb, and both were reported in fine condition. The Penningtons have seven other children, all born normally.

The other case occurred in San Bernardino, Calif., where Mrs. Emma Benson (white), 23, of Redlands, Calif., gave birth to an eight-pound baby girl.

Youthful City Worker on Truck Injured Fatally

A 17-year-old youth who "put his age up" in order to get a job with the City Sanitation Department was fatally injured Thursday morning when the ash truck he was working on was involved in an accident.

John Peden, 2423 Ralston ave., suffered fractured ribs and a punctured lung when he was thrown against a utility pole in the 700 block of W. New York st., as the truck moved close to the curb.

The youth, who had been picking up ashes and loading them on the truck, died in General hospital.

Police say the youth was riding on the right running-board of the vehicle and was apparently "swinging out" and "not looking" when he struck the pole and was thrown to the ground.

Wyatt Bransford, age 24, 149 W. 29th st., was driving the truck and George Morris, age 48, 507 Fayette st., was also working on it.

Peden had worked for the city department since August. He came to Indianapolis in July from his home in Henderson, Ky., and lived with Mr. and Mrs. Otis Moore, his cousins, at the Ralston street address.

His father, Willie Peden of Hend.,

"Last Try" on FEPC

The FEPC Bill (Mackey-Utterback, H. R. 193) appeared to be near death in the state legislature this week, but a "doctor" was working in an effort to save it.

A GOP policy subcommittee on Wednesday turned down the bill in its introduced form. Frank R. Beckwith, president of the Yankee Doodle Civic Foundation, was delegated to prepare a revised measure that might have a chance of approval.

Woman Held in Knife Slaying Freed by Court

By OPAL L. TANDY

Johnny Mae Johnson will never go to trial on the murder charge for which she has been indicted.

Knowledge that her fate would not rest in the hands of a jury came to the attractive Avenue waitress suddenly in Criminal Court Saturday morning when the state refused to prosecute her for the knife-slaying of her husband Andrew Johnson, age 33, in their Westside home nine months ago.

Trial date had been set for Monday of this week and subpoena for 100 prospective jurors had been served.

Prosecutor Frank H. Fairchild recommended to Judge Saul I. Rabb that the case be nolle after a conference with detectives of the homicide bureau the coroner, and

School Board Acknowledges Gift by Recorder Charities

The contribution of $500 to the milk lunch fund of the public schools made by Indianapolis public order charities, Inc., early this month was formally acknowledged by the Board of School Commissioners last week.

Dr. Herman Shiber, superintendent of Indianapolis public schools, presented the check to the board at a recent meeting. The board unanimously voted a resolution of appreciation of the gift and ordered its secretary, Peter L. Van Geyt, to advise Dr. G. G. Craft, president of Indianapolis Recorder Charities, of its action.

The gift by the Recorder Charities organization, which sponsors annually the well known Christmas Cheer Fund, was a prompt answer to an appeal made in recent weeks by Dr. Shiber.

Dr. Shiber, after studying a five-year survey in the public schools, disclosed that some 1,987 children would have to go without free milk lunches unless private agencies supplemented the present program supported by federal funds.

Officers of Indianapolis Recorder Charities, Inc. are Dr. C. W. Frazier, president; Frank R. Beckwith, secretary and counsel; and Marcus C. Stewart, treasurer.

13 Men Get Jail Terms In Assault Case in S. C.

GREENWOOD, S.C. (ANP)—Sentences of one year or a fine of $500 were given 13 white men here last week who had pleaded guilty to charges of criminal conspiracy in an attack of a Negro man. At the same time, the victim's 14-year-old son was freed on a murder charge in the slaying of a 14th member of the gang.

Victim of the attack, which occurred last Dec. 5, was Clayton Moore Sr., whom the defendants charged had been displaying a photograph of a nude white woman. When the 14 men beset Moore at his home, the son, Clayton Jr., answered his father's call for help. The youth picked up a shotgun and fired it at George S. Ferguson of Abbeville, killing him instantly. The remaining 13 men dispersed after the shooting.

Dr. Percy Julian To Speak at "YM" Sunday Feb. 25

Dr. Percy L. Julian, internationally renowned scientist and research director for the Glidden Company, will be the speaker for the Monster Meeting series at the Senate Avenue YMCA Sunday, Feb. 25.

Dr. Julian, a graduate of DePaul University where he later taught, was awarded the "Old Gold Goblet" in 1950. This award is made to highly distinguished alumni of the university.

A resident of Chicago, he was cited in 1950 as "The Chicagoan of the Year." He resides in the exclusive Oak Park suburban area. Acts of vandalism at his home, attributed to race hate, made national news recently.

The original 14, Bobby Kelly, is now in the Army and was not called to trial.

A jury had been selected for the trial of Clayton Jr., but the state's attorney asked the presiding judge to direct a "not guilty" verdict. He explained his reason for not wanting to try the youth by saying the boy "had every right to come to his father's aid," and the assaults were outside their legal rights.

Appeals to Churches in Jobs' Drive

An appeal will be made to local churches and church organizations this week to support the move of the Northwestern Civic League to bring about the employment of more Negro people at a Kroger retail store on the Northside.

Mrs. Ray Puryear, chairman of the civic committee of the league, observed that more than 80 percent of the patrons of the store are Negro people. Further, she noted that many homemakers and housewives of the Northwest area are members of the league.

Mrs. Puryear has been in communication recently with L. R. Frazier, head of the Kroger organization personnel department at Cincinnati.

Mr. Frazier stated in a letter to her that the firm does not practice any discrimination against any minority group, but employees must have ability and experience. Further, newcomers must be acceptable to fellow workers.

The local store involved in this instance has employed a young man and at one time a Negro girl as a checker. The girl, a college graduate, quit the job for a more promising place. At the present time two other girls have qualified for the job of checker but have not been hired, it was said.

DR. JOSEPH C. CARROLL

Dr. J. C. Carroll, AHS Teacher, Dies in Home

Dr. Joseph C. Carroll, prominent Indiana educator, historical writer and popular Baptist minister, died at his home, 2944 Indianapolis avenue, Tuesday night following an illness of about two months.

A member of the faculty of Crispus Attucks high school, Dr. Carroll had been away from his teaching duties since mid-December. He returned home early in January following an operation at the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn. He suffered a relapse in the last two weeks.

Dr. Carroll was born at Goldsboro, N. C., Jan. 12, 1886, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Carroll. He attended the schools of North Carolina, Red Bank, N.J., and Wayland Academy, Richmond, Va.

He received his A.B. degree at Virginia Union University; Ph.D., M.A., and Bachelor of Divinity degrees at the University of Chicago. He received the Ph.D. degree at Ohio State University in 1939.

Taught at Wilberforce

Dr. Carroll taught Greek, Latin and theology at the Virginia Seminary and College, Lynchburg.

Mrs. F.D.R. Says "All People Are Equal"

CHICAGO (ANP)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, speaking at the second annual "Salute to Roosevelt College" in the Congress hotel last Friday night, pointed out that this school with its democratic policy of providing opportunity for all students regardless of race, creed or color, was doing something for the nation.

"Roosevelt college," Mrs. Roosevelt, who spoke on "Human Rights," declared, "has done a courageous piece of work in the field of race relations."

"We in the United States," she continued, "facing the great problems of the world today and confronted with the fake pretensions of Communism have got to prove that democracy can and will do certain things. We have to prove in this nation of ours that we are moving toward the realization that all people, that all human beings are equal."

She pointed out that two-thirds of the people of the world are colored and that most of the needy and underprivileged are within their ranks. She said that the one-third which was white had proven by and large to be those who were the exploiters and they had furthered the assumption that they were superior. "But a new day is here," Mrs. Roosevelt declared.

After the regular routine, handcuffs were about to be placed on Dr. DuBois to lead him to the marshal's office on the floor above while bond was being arranged. Again Perry Howard protested, and this time his protest brought results and the peace advocates were led up the steps without handcuffs.

In a prepared statement handed to the press before the arraignment, Dr. DuBois thought it a "curious thing" that he be called upon to defend himself against criminal charges for openly advocating the one thing all people want—peace.

For 83 years, he said, he had worked and studied hoping that in some way he might help his fellowman to a better way of life, free of poverty and injustice. He couldn't understand how a criminal offense could be charged to an individual for advocating peace and friendship between the American people and the peoples of the world.

"Could it be criminal to hope and work for peace," he asked, "when the world has barely emerged from the horrors of the second world war and is now trembling on the brink of an atomic catastrophe?"

As the 759 high-spirited horses in the 41st annual Indiana high school basketball derby went to the post this week, the multi-gaited Crispus Attucks Tiger was on the "inside," draped in the blanket of the favorite in this sectional.

Local net enthusiasts, fans and authorities were picking Ray Crowe and his "bad, bad Attucks" team to claw the living daylight out of the opposition and roar home with their school's first sectional crown.

And from all the dope down on paper, the Green and Gold should make it.

Rated sixth in the state in the final Associated Press poll, the Crowmen finished the season with an 18-1 record by polishing off New Winchester 87 to 30 last Friday. It's notable that the 1950 Tigers also closed their season by beating New Winchester. But they won only 60 to 30.

Crowe's first team at Attucks is the best the Westside school has ever had. This 1951 tournament team is a dream. It has height, depth and balance. It has one of the state's best offenses and a better-than-fair defense. Everybody in the lineup can hit.

This is borne out by the team's compilation of 1,235

DuBOIS UNDER BOND

DENIES CHARGE OF BEING "FOREIGN AGENT"

Miss. Slayer Loses Life Term Appeal

JACKSON, Miss. (ANP)—Windel Whitt lost his appeal here last week against a life sentence imposed for his part in the massacre of three Negro children in Attala County in January, 1950.

Whitt had been convicted after Leon Turner, leader of the trio participating in the massacre, pleaded guilty and received a life sentence. The three men shot Thomas Harris twice in his farm home, attempted to kidnap his step-daughter, age 14, bent on rape and shot her twice.

The denial of appeal was handed down by the state supreme court. The third member of the trio, Malcolm Whitt, pleaded guilty to manslaughter and received a sentence of ten years.

Fiancee Weeps As Aged Scholar Is "Mugged"

By ALICE A. BUNNIGAN

WASHINGTON (ANP)—Dr. W. E. B. DuBois and three of the other persons associated with him at the Peace Information Center in New York were placed under $1,000 bond each, last Friday after pleading not guilty before the U. S. Criminal Court.

The little courtroom was crowded to capacity and the press-box running over, when the dignified scholar with the distinguishing goatee, nattily dressed in a navy blue business suit, stood before Judge F. Dickinson Letts at the so-called "bar of justice" surrounded by his associates and a battery of lawyers, and in a quiet, cultured voice proclaimed his innocence of the crime with which he was charged.

Dr. DuBois, Kyrie Elkin, Sylvia Soloff, Abbott Simon and Elizabeth Moos were indicted two weeks earlier for failing to register as foreign agents. Since Mrs. Moos was out of the country, only Dr. DuBois and the other three were arraigned before Judge Letts.

After the arraignment they were herded down the "criminal chute" like common criminals in spite of the protest of one of the attorneys, Perry W. Howard.

The courtroom quickly emptied as reporters and spectators swarmed into the hall to watch the unusual proceedings.

Dr. DuBois' fiancée, Miss Shirley Graham, burst into tears when the 83-year-old gentleman was locked behind iron bars and frisked before being fingerprinted.

After the regular routine, handcuffs were about to be placed on Dr. DuBois to lead him to the marshal's office on the floor above while bond was being arranged. Again Perry Howard protested, and this time his protest brought results and the peace advocates were led up the steps without handcuffs.

In a prepared statement handed to the press before the arraignment, Dr. DuBois thought it a "curious thing" that he be called upon to defend himself against criminal charges for openly advocating the one thing all people want—peace.

and drove west. When the hurrying girl crossed the railroad between Yandes and Cornell, the vehicle was parked just across the railroad.

Car Followed Her
As she walked toward Cornell, the car followed her, close to the curb, and the driver kept telling her to "get in." She turned the corner and headed north on Cornell, and the man followed. The frightened girl crossed the street and headed for the walk to her home, which is a short distance from 16th on the west side of Cornell. The white man wheeled his car to the west side of the street and pulled up in front of her house, but drove away as she entered. However, she was able to get his license number.

Her father traced the license number and found that the car had been rented by Pratt from a rental car establishment. Pratt is married and the father of two children.

Women's Federated Club News

By CLARA PHILLIPS
The Altruistic club will meet with Mrs. Madge Levels, 821 West 29th street.

The Four Leaf Clover club will meet with Mrs. Mary Beckwith, 2236 Martindale avenue. The club will honor Mrs. Lucille Thomas on her birthday.

The Silver Thread club has a new president, Mrs. Mary Taylor. Mrs. Taylor is a fine Christian woman, and she says she will attempt to lead the club one step higher.

The annual tea given by the Alpha Home club will be held on March 4 in the Alpha Home, 1840 Boulevard place. Mrs. Clara Mason is general chairman, and Mrs. Geneva Towns is president of the club.

In spite of the fact that Tuesday was a rainy, bad day, a large group of women attended the meeting of the Elizabeth Carter Council. Because of the illness of Mrs. Maud Robinson, city president, Mrs. Lottie Sith, one of the vice-presidents, officiated. Mrs. Mary Linsey and Mrs. Ellen Collier furnished lovely devotions and music.

The ways and means committee decided to work for the Mother's Day tea and pledged to make it go over on a large scale.

The district president, Mrs. Flossie Wier, reminded the women that the district meeting will be held in Indianapolis in late April. All state officers who live in Indianapolis are asked to contact Mrs. Lula Bean and plan to have photographs or cuts made for the state book.

The council will hold an "All-Federation Day" for the first meeting in March.

Child's Heart Stops During Operation

CLEAR MITCHELL
Two-year-old Clear Mitchell died Wednesday in General Hospital after a doctor's daring attempt to revive a heartbeat failed near the end of an appendicitis operation.

The physician, who wishes to remain anonymous, made a two-inch incision in the child's heart after it stopped pulsating, and revived the heart and kept it beating for about 30 minutes by massage. However, damage to the heart during the minute and a half it was without oxygen proved fatal. The child was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mitchell, 147 W. 27th st. Funeral services will be held in the George M. Miller Mortuary and burial will be in New Crown cemetery.

Woman Held in

Mrs. Johnson's attorney, Henry R. Wilson Jr., said he believed that the state had insufficient evidence to warrant even a manslaughter conviction against the 27-year-old woman if they took her to trial.

Wilson was ready to accept the state's offer to note the charge, but stated he was ready for trial if this had not happened. Mrs. Johnson's plea would have been self-defense, Wilson declared.

Johnson, a World War II veteran, was stabbed to death by his wife following an argument in which Mrs. Johnson said he struck her with an iron. This occurred on Saturday night, last June 3, at 1041 N. Tremont, in a second-floor apartment. The Johnson woman told police, she stabbed her husband with a small pen-knife. Police found Johnson dead in the bathroom of the couple's home after they had been notified by friends of Mrs. Johnson whose home she had fled to after the altercation.

There were no other witnesses to the killing and Mrs. Johnson had been released on bond twice once before her indictment and once after.

Fairchild said that the most damaging evidence they could possibly throw against the accused woman would have to come from her.

One arresting officer in the case agreed that they did not have much with which to go to trial, Fairchild said.

Judge Rabb admonished the disreputable ex-housewife to go home and try to stay out of trouble in the future.

Coal Firm Truck Driver Fined for "Short Delivery"

The "short-change racket" which some local coal truck drivers allegedly operate took a blow from the gavel of Judge Alex M. Clark Municipal Court IV, Thursday of last week.

Judge Clark sentenced James E. Hill, age 27, 544 Eugene st., to 10 days in jail and fined him $10 and costs on embezzlement charges, when testimony showed the defendant had made unauthorized delivery of a half-ton of coal. It was testified that he collected $6 for the coal, which allegedly was part of another order he was supposed to be delivering.

He was working for the Ernest Johnson Coal Co. Officials at the company said he had worked there about a month.

Coal companies have been receiving calls from disgruntled "housewives" who "charge" they've been "short-changed." The women say the drivers "unload" part of their coal before delivering it.

points in 19 games over the season—and some of the scores could've been higher.

The team averaged 65 points a game and held opposition to an average of 41 points. These averages are the best in the county.

Gardner, Bryant, Jewell and Davis are among the city's leading scorers. Gardner, who became eligible at the beginning of the spring semester, played in only eight games but compiled 128 points, averaging 16 points a game. Bryant ranked third among the local scorers by hitting 293 points for a 15.4 average. Big Jewell poured in 206, averaging 10.8 points, and "Noon" Davis gathered 177 for a 9.3 average.

Crowe, who admittedly believes in putting the pill through the hoop as fast as possible, has definitely put all the emphasis on shooting in rounding up his tourney team. That's good, too, because the Tigers shoot and score faster than any other team hereabouts—and they have the height to control both boards.

And so, we'll go along with the myriad of prognosticators who put the finger on the Tigers.

Attucks All the Way

But we won't stop with the sectional—we're picking them to go all the way. To the final game of the finals, anyway, where we think they'll run into Gary Froebel. And if sectional, regional and semifinal competition has done anything for them, we think they'll take Froebel.

Surely Johnny Moore and Vladimir Gasteich aren't any better than "Dill" Gardner and Bob Jewell. Then too, Froebel doesn't have any Hallie Bryants or Johnny Davises.

Here's how we'll do it. The Tigers will take the sectional. In the regional they'll take Franklin Township who'll win at Greenfield, then take Anderson in the final game. Anderson will get there by beating Speedway, who'll have won at Danville.

The Tigers will take undefeated Waveland (23-0) first, then whip Madison's Cubs. Madison will have whipped Aurora in the morning. This is the semifinal.

Now the BIG FOUR—ATTUCKS, MARION, NEW ALBANY AND GARY FROEBEL. The Green-and-Gold will knock out New Albany, who will have whipped Glenn at Bloomington to get here. Froebel will take care of Marion who'll have taken Muncie Central in the semis due to the ineptibility of the Bearcats' rebounding ace, Charlie Ross.

The Attucks-Froebel game will be one of the most sensational ever played in the state tournament.

We can't stop now. So, we'll pick the Tigers to win over the highly-touted Blue Devils.

Sure. We're not. But no padded cell can cure us. (Note: The guy IS goofy, but why does he have to brag about it? Froebel will beat Glenn in the final game.—Copy Editor.)

GARDNER HITS 42

"Dill" Gardner, swinging on the scoring end of a sizzling fast break, broke the city one-game scoring record with 42 points as the Tigers beat New Winchester last week.

The amazing thing about it was that the beanpole forward sat out all but two minutes of the final period. He scored 14 in the first quarter, 8 in the second and 12 in the third.

Then Gardner took the bench and didn't return till two minutes to go. He managed to dunk in four more field goals. His 42 points for the night were made without benefit of a free throw.

M., American Teachers Association, Indiana State Teachers Association and various other professional organizations.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Hixia S. K. Carroll; a son, Joseph C. Carroll, III; a brother, Leroy Carroll, and a sister, Mrs. Lucy Whitfield.

The body will lie in state at the Stuart Mortuary in North West street from 11:00 a.m. Sunday until the time of the funeral.

Funeral services will be held at New Baptist Church on Tuesday, Feb. 27. Dr. Miles Mark Fisher, pastor of White Rock Baptist Church, Durham, N. C., will officiate. The burial will be in Massie Creek cemetery, Wilberforce, Ohio.

ALLEGED DRUNKEN DRIVER HITS WOMAN CROSSING STREET

Mrs. Mildred Williams, 1142 N. Capitol avenue, who was struck by an auto Saturday night as she was crossing Indiana avenue at Michigan street, is recovering at General Hospital.

Driver of the car, Russell Bohr, age 39, 537 Concord street, was arrested and held on charges of drunk and operating a motor vehicle under the influence of liquor.

Mrs. Williams, lunch-counter manager of the Hook's Drug store at Washington and Delaware streets, suffered a broken right arm and right leg.

The case against Bohr was continued Monday by Judge Alex Clark in Municipal Court Room 4 until March 8.

Brotherhood

Must Be Lived!!

WHAT IS BROTHERHOOD?

Brotherhood is giving to others the rights and respect that we want for ourselves. This definition rests squarely on the basic principles of religion and is the practical expression of religion in democratic life.

Respect for all people is an essential part of our teachings from earliest childhood. As a result the concepts of equality and brotherhood are imbedded deeply into our Western civilization.

TEEN-AGERS

Which Are You?

By THE SNOOPER

On Wednesday night of last week the Intercollegiate basketball team gave a nice hop at the YMCA, and everything was real crazy. . . Ellen Scott was there looking for Rudolph Wilson, but he never showed up. It was a very sad affair for that little girl. . . Hallie Bryant sneaked off into the corner with Elizabeth Carbon and thought he was getting by with something. He wasn't.

John Davis, I hear you are supposed to be messing around with a young girl named Delores Edwards. It's a nice deal, so play up to it, Davis, because you are a good guy. . . Say, Paul "Emo" Goodloe, I hear you have eyes for Patty Ann Johnson. But what about Cubby Carr? Someone has a go.

Elnora Pepper, what about the deal between you and Myron Peterson? I hear he spent a half dollar calling you up and you were never at home. The reason is that you were too busy trying to find eyes for James Kendrick, but just wait until Albert Hale hears about this trio run-around. Jim Bettis is still playing "live and let live" with poor little Catherine Armstrong's heart, but lobby Jones is still the burning torch which just can't be put out.

Kay "Bowleg" Anderson has now put in her bid for Tee Oliver's heart, and it was on an installment plan with six months to pay.

Mary Ann Edeien has made a play for Charlie West which has paid off in the full amount, and so payments barred! . . . Why doesn't "Pute" Mason want to give Vivian Howard a chance at his heart? Is it because Mickey Branford has absolutely roped it?

Billy Mitchell, is it true that your heart is all tied up with love for Jean Woods? If so, then what about my friend, Pervis Henderon? . . . Well at least I have the goods on Viola Nance. She actually has eyes for William "Dill" Gardner, and she says he is her only interest.

I hear Roselle Boyd's new flame is none other than Clynes Knight, and I agree she is a very nice girl. . . Shirley Ross, why don't you play on out where you are not wanted? Meaning Pau Rowley. He has eyes for Edna Thurman, or didn't you know?

Well, it seems as though Eddie Newsome has a chance to choose between two babes, namely Joan Martin and Dorothy Foust. Now, I think Joan is your best deal, Eddie, but you do what you want. After all, it's you they're after. Why does Jessie Wray keep putting Eugene Robinson down? Is it because she has thumbs down for Floyd Young? If so, you had better forget all about it, Eugene. . . Mike Morgan and Audrey Hoskins are gradually going back together, which is very nice, because Lee Bennett is a long way from here. Oh yes, Mike is away at college. If you want his address, see Skinny Alexander or John Roach.

Willard Nance and Jean Lane are getting along just fine, even though Willard is attending I. U. Jean is still his No. 1 admirer. . . George Bright seems to be the big wheel in Flora Belle Bryant's life, and I hear he does all the turning between them both. . . Thelma Summers and Wally Parrish are still on the gone kick for each other, and that is one nice deal.

Say, fellas, do you want to know something? The only b-be Cantrell Mitz has is Rosa Lee Owens, because no one else will have him. And she ain't so hot herself! . . . Eddie "Buck" Stewart and Delores Webster are making some gone eyes at each other, so Cooke, you had better beware. Things might start happening that you don't want to happen. Heed my warning, dear friend.

Clifford Fossest is still talking but underminded lemon to Mildred Ward. . . Leashman Covington, when are you going to wake up to real life? Can't you see that Aleria Thomas is just drowsing on her you say one sweet word to her? Why not give the little girl a break?

Social Scene

By RICHARD C. HENDERSON

Those of you who were surprised not to find a note in last week's column about the very beautiful "at home" held by Mr. and Mrs. DENVER HINTON will, I trust, be satisfied by this week's column—it was unfortunately held up. . . Although their guests were not informed that it was on Valentine's Day last year that the Hinton's slipped away and were married at the "Little Brown Church in the Vale" in Nashville, Ia.

This year's Saturday night party saw 56 guests entertained until the wee morning hours, with the entire house, from the reception rooms to the second floor, thrown open. . . The beautifully gowned women and well-turned-out men enjoyed music by Wade Heston and M. Riddie.

Mrs. Hinton herself made quite a picture in a gown of black tulle with slim waistline which graduated into a wide, flowing skirt. . . Her corsage of red carnations matched her husband's boutonniere.

Following Saturday night's festivities, the house was again opened on Sunday from 3 to 5 and from 5 to 7, during which time more than 200 guests enjoyed the Hinton hospitality. . . Beautifully prepared refreshments were served. This time Mrs. Hinton chose a dinner gown of chartreuse crepe and white gardenias presented by her husband. Later changing to a lovely double-orchid corsage presented by one of her guests.

The entire house was made more beautiful by flowers of all kinds, sent by friends. The table centerpiece Saturday night was a variegated sweetpeas and pastel roses, and the Sunday center of large, dark-red roses was sent by Mr. and Mrs. SEA H. PEROU.

Music throughout the afternoon was furnished by Mrs. CHARLES L. GOODMAN, talented pianist and singer.

Hostesses were Mesdames WALTER JOHNSON, OTIS R. BRYANT, C. FARRAGUT ALLEN, W. TRAVIS WHITE, TROY MANLEY, BOYD BELL, ANN KENNERLY, and MARTHA EDWARDS and Miss EMARITA PITTS.

Mrs. Hinton presented each of her hostesses with a dainty Valentine hanky.

On Valentine evening Mr. Hinton entertained his wife at a owntown dinner, show, and later "canasta for two" at home. This week-end members of Tau Kappa and Alpha Mu Omega chapters of the Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority staged a three-day observance of Founders' Day climaxed by a formal dance on Friday night at the Indiana Dec. club attended by about 60 guests dancing to the music of Al Richard and his combo.

Preparations for the affair were made by Sorors MARY PERRY, BETTY LYERSON, and RUBY WOODSON, decorations; and JARATHA ELSTON, NAOMI D'NEIL, NORMA WOODS, EVELYN TAYLOR, BETTY GUESS, BETTY LYERSON, MAENELI NEWSOME, MARY PERRY, and RUBY WOODSON, dance committee.

Sessions were held Saturday in the home of Mrs. OLIVIA ANDERSON with the national banquets, Mrs. LAURA LOVELOCE Cincinnati. . . On Sunday Mrs. Lovelace gave the morning talk at Second Christian Church for her sorors, having been introduced by Miss EMMA MAE ALLISON, bassist of Alpha Mu Omega chapter.

Miss NORMA LEWIS is bassist of Kappa chapter at Butler University, and Miss MARY NICHOLS is Bloomington's Tau chapter bassist.

Speaking of Second Christian Church, the Women's Service club of the church served about 50 turkey dinners last Monday night for the local Church Federation.

Mrs. HENRY GREER is president of the club, and Mrs. YORK JENNINGS is chairman of the entertainment committee.

The Me-De-Phar Guild met on Thursday of last week with Mrs. SPURLING CLARK, still making plans for the presentation of the Jubilee Singers here on March 9. . . Tickets for the presentation, by the way, will be on sale at L. S. Ayres and Company on March 2 and 3.

Present at last week's meeting were Mesdames I. N. TURNER, J. LEON SIMMS, H. H. STONER, R. B. MCARTHUR, E. D. ALEXANDER, J. ROBERT LAWSON, E. D. MOTEN, F. M. KING, F. E. CHOWNING, R. D. CLINTHORN, JAMES W. ANDERSON, O. B. PAIGE, and R. E. HANLEY and the Mesdames CORINE and OLIVE MIDDLETON.

DAVID CLARK was host to last week's meeting of the Wilesway bridge club, with Mesdames CHESTER SHEA, DAVID REYNOLDS, HARRY BROOKS, MARK BATTIES, and SPURLING CLARK as guests. . . Prizes were won by Dr. I. N. MIDDLETON and Mesdames THEA and David Clark.

Mrs. JOHN NORREL will be hostess to the Book Lovers club next Sunday afternoon. . . A special program is being prepared by Mesdames CECIL R. POWELL, L. P. WALLACE, and WALKER CORNETT.

Mrs. LAURENCE J. FALWELL and son are visiting Mr. and Mrs. HARRY BEASLEY in Chicago and Dr. and Mrs. ROBERT G. SMITH in Waukegan, Ill., this week.

Mrs. PEARL CHAMBERS will leave for Washington, D. C., next month to attend the wedding of her son, THEODORE, on March 10 to Miss JEANNE WILSON CLIFFORD, daughter of Mrs. CHARLES PRUDHOMME of that city and CHRIS CLIFFORD, New York City. . . While in Washington, Mrs. Chambers will visit Miss VIVIAN KAUFMAN, and also plans to visit friends in New York.

Her daughter, Mrs. KATHRYN CHAMBERS, OTEY, Nashville, Tenn., will join her in Washington to attend the wedding. . . Mrs. Otey will also visit friends in Washington and New York.

The Progressive Mothers club members have organized their

COLUMBUS LADY SERVES DINNER

COLUMBUS—Mrs. John Stewart entertained with a three-course dinner last Sunday afternoon in honor of her niece, Mrs. Sarah Robertson, Racine, Wis.

The lace-covered table was centered with a long flower bowl, and four Valentine candles caught the season's motif. Each place was marked with nut cups closed with place-card markings.

Guests included Mesdames Edith Kirkpatrick, Madeline Smith, Serena Booker, Mabel Lander, and Prentiss Smith.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA CHAPTER MEETS

Psi Theta chapter of Alpha Phi Omega sorority held its regular monthly meeting with Soror Victoria Bowman, 135 West 21st street, on Monday of last week.

Tentative plans were made for members of the chapter to attend the national convention, to be held in Atlanta, Ga., March 4-7.

Soror Bowman's table centerpiece was a huge heart of St. Valentine. She entertained with a tasty dinner.

The next meeting will be held after the national convention.

daughters into a Junior club, purpose of which is "to foster good charitable deeds and to teach the social graces." . . Daughters of the Progressive Mothers' club automatically become members when they reach the age of seven.

Officers were elected at the first meeting, held Sunday, in the home of MARCIA and KAREN GAY CLARK. . . They are ALICE ROBERTS, president; MARCIA CLARK, vice-president; JOYCE WINSTON, treasurer; SHARON BETTY, corresponding secretary; KAREN GAY CLARK, recording secretary; KAREN GAY CLARK, sergeant-at-arms; CAROLYN WINSTON, librarian; and FRANCES ELAINE RANSOM, CECILIA WYNN, and ALETHEA HILL, program committee.

Sponsors are Mesdames FRANCES CLARK, JACKIE HANLEY, MARY ROBERTS, and EULA BETTY.

Several interesting affairs are coming up—on Friday night of his week the Kappa Sigmaettes are entertaining at a card party in the Jordan Hall of the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA, with Mrs. WILLIAM D. MACKAY as chairman.

Mrs. OTIS R. BRYANT is president of the fraternity auxiliary.

Expected to be outstanding among coming affairs is the annual tea of the Columbia Place community club, to be held Sunday afternoon from 4 to 7 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. CLIFFORD WILSON, 325 West 42nd street.

Mrs. HENRY J. RICHARDSON is general chairman of the affair, and Mrs. CLIFFORD WILSON will be in charge of the program.

Other chairmen are Mesdames ROY THOMPSON, table arrangements; CLEO BLACKBURN, hostesses; ERNEST DIX, refreshments; and ELSON BENEDICT and CLARENCE T. R. NELSON, publicity.

The interesting musical program will feature a skit by the group's Cub Scouts. . . Mrs. WILLIAM GIST, chairman of the membership drive for the club, reports encouraging enthusiasm among her workers and expects a gratifying response from the community at large.

Another coming affair is the Alpha Home tea to be sponsored Sunday afternoon, March 4, from 4 to 7 in the Alpha home. . . Mrs. JOHN TOWNS is president of the Alpha Home Association, and Mrs. BRUCE MASON is general chairman of the tea.

On Friday night of this week the Planners House Junior League will have its "Mardi Gras Ball," and on Saturday night the Thirteen Lamps club will entertain at a formal dance in the K. of C. hall, so it will be a busy week-end!

SURPRISE PARTY: Members of the Galeda Girls class of the Metropolitan Baptist Church Sunday school surprised Mrs. William F. Sweatt, wife of their pastor, at a birthday party on February 6. In addition to receiving a pleasant surprise, Mrs. Sweatt received many beautiful gifts and greetings.

Mrs. Eliza Soddler is teacher of the class, and Miss Carol Lively is president. Also members are Mesdames Juanita Bronaugh, Maggie Potters, Pearl Lively, Susie Moore, Tisher Huston, and Pearl Willis, the Misses Joyce Long, Dorothy Tyler, Frances Tyler, Anna Walker, Doris Coleman, Jean Marshall, Adell Walton, Ernestine Porter, Katherine Clark, Bertha Huston, and Barbara Coleman, and Johnny Walton.

"Deep Are The Roots" Tops Founders' Day Celebration

The PTA of School No. 23 celebrated Founders' Day at its last meeting by presenting a special play "Deep Are The Roots." The cast included Bill Powell of WIRE as radio commentator; Miss Clara Walker, teacher, as narrator; Mesdames Joseph Drake and Carolyn Johnson, parents; and Johnetta Hutchinson, Marva Anderson, Carol Rhyne, and Willa Mae Clark, pupils.

Other features were the school orchestra, the rhythm band, and the presentation of past presidents of the PTA. They were gifted with Valentine boxes of candy.

Mrs. Mary McGee is PTA president, and Mrs. Rose H. Thompson is principal of the school.

The school's Pioneer club presented Dr. Louis Mackey as guest speaker at the Life Builders club last Sunday afternoon in the Senate Avenue YMCA. He showed films taken on his trip to England, Scotland, France, Belgium and Italy.

The Elder Dicks School No. 42 PTA presented a Founders' Day play on Wednesday afternoon of his week. The play "The Miracle of the PTA" was written by Mrs. Albert A. Moore, an active PTA member. Participants were Mesdames Earl Whitely, Robert Woods, Virgil Cox Jr., Harold Hayes Jr., Earl Ellis, and Lloyd B. B. B.

Mrs. Ellis is acting president of the PTA, and Mrs. H. B. Johnson is school principal.

School No. 17's PTA will give its Founders' Day tea Sunday afternoon from 4 to 7 in the school, the Pooker T. Washington school, at 1102 North West street. Special guests will be past presidents.

A program has been arranged by the chairman, Mrs. Ruth Blodoe. Mrs. Lois Williams will give the history of the school. A so-called committee are Mesdames

Members of the Committee of 12 Sends Cheer Cards

Members of the Committee of twelve really showed that they loved their neighbors recently. As a special project, they sent Valentine cheer cards to shut-ins.

Among those cheered by the group's thoughtfulness were Elsie Byrd-ong, Amelia Noel, Mary Fox, Mary E. Dulin, Mary North, Les Davis, Nannie Blasingame, Adelle Blackman, Hattie Knox, Jennie P. Fowkes, Artie Taylor, Rachel Gregory, Anna Benbry, Eliza Duncan, Sarah D. Tyree, Anna Campbell, Nettie Adams, Edgar Majors, David Amos, Rebecca Stiles, Ethel Shivers, and Elizabeth J. Jackson.

Mrs. S. L. 2230 Miller street, is president of the group.

Members of the Men About Town Gay Nocturnes club had a busy week-end, starting with a baby shower for the recent addition to the family of M. Graham and ending with a birthday party for the men's club secretary, William Head.

The last meeting was held in the home of Hollis James, and next meeting will be with John Lewis, 623 Eugene street.

AMOS STUDY CLUB WILL MEET SUNDAY

The Charles R. Amos Study club will meet Sunday afternoon at 4 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oran Glick, 518 West 28th street. Samuel A. Vaulx will open the discussion on "Breathing."

Lucille Dean is president of the group, and Buford Hazel is reporter.

KIRSHBAUM GIVES FRENCH FILM

"Generals Without Buttons," French film termed by Time magazine to have "the polished simplicity of a parable," will be the fourth and last picture offered by the Kirshbaum Community Cinema of the Jewish Community Center Association in its current series.

The single showing will be given at the Kirshbaum Center, 2314 North Meridian street, at 8:15 Sunday night. It was announced his week by Mesdames Irwin Katz and Joseph Dryer, co-chairmen of the cinema committee.

The story deals with a trivia feud between two French village which has been carried on from generation to generation, until, in him, the warring parties are composed of children. They finally recognize the silly prejudices of their parents and the futility of the whole affair, so decide to end the war, at which point the parents renew the old feud.

The theme is summarized in a classic remark by one of the children: "I suppose when we grow up we will be as stupid as they are."

The program on Sunday evening held in the informal setting of the lounge.

Ritz Club Awards Prizes For 1950

Highlighting the meeting of the Ritz Bridge club recently in the home of Mrs. Mamie Anderson was the awarding of prizes for the highest bridge scores of 1950.

The club "Oscar," first prize, was awarded to the president, Mrs. Arella Woodard. Each year the winner's name is engraved upon the "Oscar." The second and third prizes were won by Mesdames "Reddie" Douglas and Virgie Burton.

Club officers were installed January 25 by Starling W. James, president of the Federation of Associated Clubs, Inc.

Voice of the Eastside

By MARY P. MCGUIRE

I took time out last Saturday night to serve as clerk at the Service Men's Center, 111 North Capitol avenue, and to my surprise noticed hundreds of servicemen packing the spacious four-floor building, eating, playing games, reading, and talking.

Having a son in the service, my heart went out for those boys, knowing some mother was wondering about them.

Mrs. Frederick H. Evans is appealing to all church groups and clubs to invite these boys to take part in their activities. All invitations will be highly appreciated.

Mrs. William R. Higgins urges all to encourage the boys to use the facilities of the center.

or our church schools, any old hater will do."

Religious education classes are now being held at New Bethel Baptist Church, with well qualified teachers in charge. All are invited, whether they intend to enroll or not.

Just received word from Dr. L. B. Meriwether that his sister, Mrs. Maude Black, principal of School No. 56, is improving at the hospital. Mrs. Black played a very important part in the clean-up drive sponsored by the Eastside Better Business and Civic League last year.

It has also been reported that Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Meriwether, who were injured in the same accident, have been sent home and are reported fair.

While in the Statehouse last week another surprise met my eyes. Miss Bledsoe, talented and very popular young Eastsider, is now serving in the auto license department. She is organizer for "Orinthian Baptist Church, a no-ary public, and vocal and instrumental teacher."

The Little Sun beams of Alayne Chapel, Irvington, gave a variety program last Sunday with Sandra Brown, granddaughter of Mrs. Ella Worthing, 1650 Columbia avenue, as master of ceremonies.

Guest speakers were Mesdames Hattie Webster and Lois Skippy. Darlene Brown is president of the group.

The pastor, Rev. Mary E. Johnson, an Eastside minister, living at 938 East 17th street, reports the church is doing fine. While Rev. Johnson is pastor of the Methodist Church in Irvington, we have Rev. H. H. Noel as pastor of the Baptist Church, with no competition.

Taxpayers are still rushing to my desk with their income tax papers, yet I notice that many are waiting for the last minute rush or auto licenses. Funny how we hold our money, isn't it?

Thinking of that reminds me of preparedness, which in turn reminds me of a statement I once heard—"We demand the best teachers for our children in school, the best doctors for our health, the best mechanics for our cars, but when it comes to teachers

LOUIS MUNCIES TO FETE DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Muncie will entertain a group of boys and girls in their home, 2745 North Keystone avenue, in honor of the fourteenth birthday of their daughter, Naomi Marie, Sunday afternoon.

Special games and other social activities are planned for the affair.

Sees First Task Of Parents To Make A Happy Home Life

There was a time when window-shopping was quite a lot of fun because we always knew that although the things were expensive, a moment usually arrived when we could treat ourselves to some of the items we saw. But that time has passed, and the average housewife now has all she can do to balance the food budget, let alone attempt to find any scheme to buy other things.

All we hear about are the cost of food, the rising cost of clothes, and what is to be done about them. The answer usually comes out the same—nothing. We do have to eat, and we do need clothes; all the talking in the world is not going to help it, and action is what is needed.

Then we always say that it is such a pity to let the children hear all the talk about the high cost of living—what will it do to them? Childhood is such a short stage in life compared to the length of the rest of it, so let us try to keep it just as happy as possible. Yet others of us do not believe that way and we proceed to let the children know all the details of the unhappy state of affairs.

Some of us say that the child has something the adult does not have—the ability to throw off that thing which does not immediately concern him. So, after the child hears these things over and over again, he begins to talk about bills as if it were his second nature.

Others of us say that he will either become a chronic worrier or a spendthrift, or some other kind of maladjusted personality who will make a poor mate for some unsuspecting person. Now, just what should we do concerning these nervous days? Should we tell the children or not?

The most important thing a parent can do today is to make a happy home for her children by giving the child something to live by. Most adults are tense now because they have nothing to hold on to—they have lost faith in themselves in their fellowman and in the God that they had always worshiped because they never really understood what faith truly is.

In turn we give that feeling of unrest to our children and we begin to complain and fuss and fret and forget to pray and forget to enjoy the simple things God has given us. Our children are the hope of tomorrow and they can be the reason why life should be rosy instead of continually blue; if you look back over your childhood I'm sure you will find many things which happened to you which you are saying will never happen to your children. But aren't those things probably the things that made a better woman out of you?

Why not discuss the tempo of present living, at the same time

remembering to live a sane, unhurried life and present a good example for your children? There are a few simple principles they should be taught—the Ten Commandments, faith, hope, charity. An unselfish show of genuine affection from you, and I am sure the children will make it.

No one expects the parent to take the hard knocks out of life for the child, all you must do is to be the buffer so that although things get a little rough at times, love and security are still there for him to lean upon. They are truly the things that really count. The news about the young men in college who supposedly accepted a bribe is certainly quite disheartening, because it makes you wonder if they were taught loyalty to what—the dollar or the heart? Wer'ten love, security, affection, faith, and the Ten Commandments strong enough to get firm roots?

There are many parental arguments, and many will say that no one is responsible but the boys themselves; but (and listen closely) who forms all opinions of children (before they are grown) and makes them the way they are? We are responsible for their reasoning, and the best thing I can give you in the way of philosophy for these unsettled days and times is this: Teach your child to live so that "every day he will increase in wisdom and stature and favor with God and man."

Mission Committee Holds Convention

The city mission committee of the Central District Home and Foreign Missionary Convention met last week at the Indiana Baptist headquarters here. Purpose of the group is to render services wherever a need exists. Remarks were made by Mrs. F. P. Young, district president.

Mrs. Fannie Young of Good Samaritan Baptist Church is chairman of the group. Other officials are Miss Willa Thomas, vice-chairman; Mrs. Fannie Murrell, secretary; and Pearlce Wagner, treasurer.

Party Surprises Bertha Johnson

Mrs. Bertha Johnson, 949 West Pearl street, was honored at a surprise birthday party on Thursday. She received a number of valuable gifts from admiring relatives and friends.

OBSERVANCE CHAIRMAN: Soror Edna G. Tellefero, is general chairman of the observance of the National Womanhood Week by Zeta Phi Beta sorority members here. Plans have been completed for the observance to be held February 25 to March 4.

The week has been an outstanding annual session of activities fostering finer womanhood since the founding of Zeta Phi Beta sorority in 1920. Closing the activities will be the annual Finer Womanhood Convention to be held in Second Christian Church on Sunday afternoon, March 4, at 4. An interesting program has been arranged.

Shiloh Group Has Anniversary

The junior missionary Shiloh Baptist Church held its second anniversary program last Sunday in the church with Miss Willa Thomas as speaker. Special music came from the women's chorus of New Bethel Baptist Church, directed by Mrs. Mabel Washington.

Remarks also came from Rev. James Brown, Mrs. J. I. Saunders, Mrs. Cordial Watson, vice-president of the Senior Missionary Convention of Indiana Baptists; and Rev. J. I. Saunders.

Mrs. Anna Bishop was master of ceremonies, and devotions were conducted by Mesdames Fannie Jones and Rhea Lowe. Mrs. Bessie Beverly gave the welcome, while Miss Dorothy Whittaker read the history of the group.

Each member wore a corsage of red and white sweetpeas, and Mrs. Virginia Russ, president, presented Miss Thomas with a corsage from the group. The group has rendered services to the sick, the needy, those in hospitals, and people in prisons.

Officers for 1951 are Mrs. Virginia Russ, president; Miss Dorothy Whittaker, secretary; and Mesdames Fannie Jones, treasurer; Anna Bishop, program chairman; Rhea Lowe, chaplain; and Bessie Beverly, corresponding secretary. Rev. Saunders is pastor of the church.

WILLIAM BOGAN SERVES LUNCHEON

The home of William Bogan was scene of a beautiful party last Sunday afternoon when he entertained in honor of Valda Grey, Dixie Lee, and Petite Swanson, all well-known female impersonators formerly of Joe's DeLuxe in Chicago.

The trio were en route to Newport, Ky., where they are engaged for an extended term at the newly opened Sportsman club. The remainder of the show traveled directly to Newport.

A buffet luncheon was served, the host being assisted by the well-known caterer, Rossie Whitfield.

Phi Gamma Delta Chapter Holds Fifth Installation

Gamma chapter of Phi Gamma Delta sorority celebrated its fifth installation ceremonies in Flanner House with a banquet last week.

Following dinner, the program was opened with Soror Edythe Alsop, dean of pledges, as master of ceremonies. The "Negro National Anthem" opened the program, followed by a prayer from Soror Helen Porter, national chaplain.

The welcome address was given by Soror Marjorie Keyes, parliamentarian, and the response was given by Soror Phylonia Williams, member of Beta chapter, Detroit. Soror Janita Parnell, president of the Detroit chapter and member of the national board of directors and the Thirteen Pearls, gave a brief history of the sorority.

Soror Gladys Ransom introduced the speaker, Mrs. Henrie Ward Banks, who spoke on "This Is a Woman's World." Mrs. Banks also installed the officers, who included Sorors Robertine Wells, basileus; Mary Mosby, anti-basileus; Mary H. Dunn, grammateus; Lois P. Brown, financial secretary and treasurer; Edythe Alsop, dean of pledges; Thelma Knox, chaplain; Bernice Harrison, editor-in-chief and reporter; and Marjorie Keyes, parliamentarian.

Soror Bertha Smith, national corresponding secretary, introduced the national officers and visiting sorors. She also acknowledged telegrams from sorors in Detroit. Remarks were given by Soror Kathleen Roberts, Detroit, national organizer. Other members of Gamma chapter are Sorors Alice Daugherty, Helen Porter, Gladys Ransom, and Bertha Smith.

Soror Alsop introduced the pledges, who are Mesdames Myra Coates, Hazel Crowe, and Floriene Ford and Miss Doris Taylor.

More than forty local and out-of-town women attended the affair.

After the banquet a party was held in the home of Soror Ransom for members and their friends. Those present included Messrs. and Mesdames Clarence Mosby, Willard Ransom, Willis Porter, Willie D. Hamp, Bervin Caesar, Alonzo Dunn, Chester Mullins, Wilbur Knox, Lemuel Alsop, Chester Coates, Charles Ford, Herbert Crowe, Clifford Ransom, Robert Ransom, and Mose Smith.

Also Dr. Lois P. Brown, Mesdames Bernice Harrison, Oneida Miller, and Marjorie Keyes, the Misses Alice Daugherty, Robertine Wells, and Doris Taylor, and Messrs. Thomas Bracken, Howard Clark, Charles Williams, Clifford Nance, Pernell Hoos, Joe Hill, Gilbert Maxey, Milton Proctor, Michael Gault, Clarence Keno, Willie Cox, Forrest King, A. Floyd and Moon Mullin.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Kathleen Roberts and the Misses Janita Parnell and Phylonia Williams, Detroit.

tee is making plans for the souvenir book for the dedication of the building. Although all members have not been attending the meetings of the committee, they have all pledged to work.

Mrs. Vanessa Seymour was rushed to General Hospital last week. This has necessitated the postponement of the social sponsored by the Just Us club. A date will be announced.

The civic and legislative committee is planning a tea to be given on March 18. An interesting program will be rendered.

The Pitz Bridge club and the Railroadmen have completed payment of their pledges to the building fund.

A few accommodations can still be made by those interested in going to Haiti on the FAC educational tour next summer. Contestants for the trip are reporting regularly.

A. Phillip Randolph was royally entertained by the local chapter of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters at the club home last.

Members of the educational committee, who are Sorors Edna G. Tellefero, Sadie Williams, Mattie James, and Willa Owsley, registrars; Wilma Suter, Sue DeBow, Ella Quisenberry, and Thelma Harrington, punch table; and Helen Hall, Malinda Tanner, Luvenia Toles, Opal Hill, Frances Stewart, Ruby Wadell, and Edna Osborne, hostesses.

Mrs. Marie Barbee furnished the background music. Mrs. Ann Kennerly, committee chairman, also served as hostess. Flowers and other greenery were furnished by the Sneed Florists and Regal flower shop.

Our forefathers, who, as Rev. H. A. Perry said at the opening of the observance, paid a terrific price for the heritage we possess, would, I believe, be a little pleased if they could know that our ministers, school teachers, social workers, and other professional people and laymen could find the time, with conditions as they are today, to participate in a special eulogy for them.

Twenty members of the special day committee were entertained by the chairman, Mrs. Ethel Ryan, at a very delicious luncheon last week. Plans were made for the annual Mother's Day tea, at which the oldest mother present will be honored.

The press and publicity committee.

Highlighting the afternoon's program will be the Fashionettes presenting "Round the Clock" fashions worn by children of all ages.

The chapter has a record of outstanding work in the community. It gives an annual $100 scholarship to a Crispus Attucks graduate for four years and presents books by Negro authors to the Crispus Attucks branch library regularly.

Mrs. Lillian Hall, librarian, accepts the books from the sorority for the Phi Delta Kappa bookshelf. Soror Ethel Lambert is basileus of the local chapter, and Soror Irene Georgia Robinson is chairman of publicity.

The meeting will be held in the Kirshbaum Center, 2314 North Meridian street, on Tuesday night of next week at 8:30. The discussion will be very informal, admission is free, and everyone interested in current world affairs is invited to participate.

COMPLETES COURSE: Mrs. Corinne Moore Gaines, a veteran of World War II, has the distinction of being the only woman to complete the entire course offered by the Indianapolis Electronic school. She enrolled on March 1, 1948, and completed the course on December 16, 1949.

Included were the fundamentals of electronics, radio servicing, radio operating, and television repairing.

Now employed by the Indiana Electronic and Television Corporation, Mrs. Gaines holds three certificates in this training and hopes to secure her first-class FCC license in the not-too-distant future.

SHOWER HONORS JOHN BUTLER
A lovely house shower was given in honor of Rev. and Mrs. John Butler in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ranelin on Monday night of last week.

The esteem in which the couple and their son are held by the entire Brightwood community was shown by all kinds of gifts for the home presented by the guests. The Butlers suffered loss of their home recently in a fire.

Valentine decorations were used, and refreshments were served. Mrs. Ranelin was assisted by Mesdames Norman Oldham, Louis Harper, Curtis Oldham, and Mary Courtney.

BLOOMINGTON DT. ELKS PLAN EMMA KELLEY TEA
BLOOMINGTON—The Georgia Clemons Temple No. 950, Daughters Elks, will present its annual Emma V. Kelley tea Sunday afternoon in the auditorium of the Bancker school from 4 to 6.

The affair will be open to the public. Saturday night, I am told that his address there was equally as good as the one he made Sunday at the YMCA Monster Meeting.

The comforter given away by the "means" committee was won by Mrs. Kosiyn Graves, 2304 Indianapolis avenue, at the social held in the home of the committee chairman, Mrs. Nora Williams, 859 West 30th street, last Saturday night. The social was well attended.

Remember the bridge and whist party at the club home on Friday night of this week. Bonus points will be given for being on time, and the prizes will include a basket of groceries.

"Miss Phi Delta Kappa" To Reign At Children's Hour
The crowning of "Miss Phi Delta Kappa" will culminate the children's activities when Tau chapter of the national sorority presents its annual "Children's Hour" from 4 to 6 Sunday afternoon in Jordan Hall of the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA in observance of Negro History Week.

Soror Sylvia Allensworth, general chairman, announces that the complete program will be composed of children, Soror Myrtle Bethel will be narrator.

Highlighting the afternoon's program will be the Fashionettes presenting "Round the Clock" fashions worn by children of all ages.

Over 500 View Opening Of 2nd YMCA Art Exhibit

The second annual YMCA art exhibit opened Sunday with a mammoth group of over 500 people pouring through the doors of the art gallery.

A reception in conjunction with the opening was served by the girls of Sigma Theta and Beta Alpha Mu chapters of Gradale sorority, and the men of Phalanx fraternity acted as ushers and monitors for the occasion. Punch, cookies, candies, and nuts were served, and music was provided by Mrs. Dorothy Parks, harpist, who played continually throughout the evening.

The pictures were judged early in the evening by a jury composed of Garo Antreasian, Ruth Sloan Robinson, and Orfeo Vian.

The first prize in oil painting went to Junetta Hunter for her portrait "Lydia." First prize in gouache was awarded to Mary Alice Barnett for her "Square No. 2." David Snyder placed second in watercolor with his "Shack." Miss Hunter was also awarded an honorable mention in water color for her "El Patio," and in pastels Joseph Holiday won honorable mention for "Three Figures."

In commercial art Eddy Willingham was awarded first prize for her "The Dog, the Cook, and the Fox." John Hill won two second prizes in commercial art for his club, and Dukes, Inc. Art materials won by high school students were contributed by Lyman Brothers, Berry Brothers Art Store, Leiber's Company, and the American Clay Company.

The exhibit is remaining open this week each night from 7 to 9, and is open to the public without charge.

Flanner House Group Plans Belated "Mardi Gras" Ball

The Flanner House Junior League will sponsor a gala "Night at the Mardi Gras" on Friday night of this week in the Walker Casino. There will be many surprises and lots of fun for all age groups. The affair was originally planned for February 2, but was postponed because of bad weather.

The Flanner House basketball team is still doing a very good job in both the YMCA and the Red Feather leagues. The seniors have not lost a game, and are still playing hard until the end of the league sessions. They will enter the tournaments after March 1.

Harold Tyler and Donald Williams of the senior team represented Flanner House on the religious basketball team of the Senate Avenue YMCA when the team played against Kirshbaum center Monday night.

The Celestial Youth choir of Mt. Paran Baptist Church will present an hour-long program at Flanner House next Wednesday night. The group is a fine musical organization under the direction of David Walker, and their program is designed to interest the whole family. Rev. C. Henry Bell is pastor of the church.

Family night is observed each Wednesday night from 7 to 9.

Miss Jessie Rodgers, 315 West 14th street, a member of the Flanner House Socialites club, will represent the institution next Tuesday on the panel discussion of the neighborhood youth planning committee of the Council of Social Agencies, to be held in the Canary Cottage. Miss Rodgers is a senior at Crispus Attucks high school.

A teen canteen will be held at Flanner House on Friday of this week.

BREAKFAST CLUB PLANS DINNER
The Jolly Ten Breakfast club met with Sam Christman last week. Plans were made for a Kentucky oyster dinner Saturday night at 230 West 18th street. Mr. Christman served a fried chicken breakfast.

Next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Agnes Montgomery on March 3.

Mrs. Susie Blair is president. Carrie Stott is secretary, and Bernice Christman is treasurer.

PROGRESS OF GARY URBAN LEAGUE IN 1950 REPORTED

GARY—The executive director of the Gary Urban League, Clifford E. Minton, disclosed last week in the annual report of the organization that over 1,500 persons had been aided through the employment, vocational guidance, housing, health and other programs of the organization during 1950.

The league counseled with more than 475 persons seeking jobs, and was indirectly or directly responsible for the placing of many persons in skilled work brackets. More than 20 young women in the guidance program were given tests to evaluate their skills.

The league cooperated with Roosevelt high school in organizing and promoting the annual vocational opportunity campaign. It was reported also that block units designed for neighborhood civics, education and cooperation, increased from 12 to 28 by the end of the year. These sponsored 26 special projects and 131 meetings during the year.

Code Worked Out
A code of personal practice and standards for the organization was formulated and adopted. It provided a clear understanding of the work ahead and the manner in which it was to be accomplished.

The staff of the league held 437 meetings, conferences and field contacts with employers, unions, civic groups, social agencies, governmental and other agencies, in carrying out its work.

Mr. Minton cited the aims of the organization to promote equal economic opportunity for all citizens on the basis of individual merit; to provide vocational guidance for young people and to stimulate and participate in community efforts for better housing, health, education and recreation.

Mrs. Ida Willis

Funeral services for Mrs. Ida Willis, age 67, 1433 Shepard st., were held at the Union Baptist Church, Tuesday, Feb. 13. The burial was in Floral Park cemetery. She died in her home Tuesday, Feb. 13.

Mrs. Willis was a native of Crisp County, Georgia, and had lived in this city since 1948. She was a member of the Union Baptist Church.

Survivors include a brother, John Anderson, Cordale, Ga., and other relatives.

Va. Marine Corps School Admits Negro Student

QUANTICO, Va. (AP)—The Quantico Post school for the first time in its history has admitted a Negro student. The action is in line with other schools in Virginia which in recent months have lowered the bars to permit Negro students to enter classes.

The first Negro to enter this school here is 14-year-old Ebel Britt, daughter of Marine Corp. Master Sergeant Charles Britt. Miss Britt began her studies on Jan. 22 in the tenth grade.

Spokesmen for the Marine Corps school and the Virginia Department of Education explained that the girl's admission was not in conflict with the Virginia constitution which requires the races to be segregated in the state's public schools.

Virginia has no jurisdiction over the post school, according to the state superintendent of public instruction, Dowell J. Howard in Richmond, because the school is located on federal government property and is operated by the federal government with the teachers on a United States civil service status.

SENTENCE SERMONS

By REV. FRANK CLARENCE LOWRY for ANP

OUR WAY VS. GOD'S
Man has always wanted his way—yes, from his birth in Eden, even until this day.

If he wouldn't from the beginning take God's way, with no personal expenses or rent to pay, perhaps not much more can be expected of him at this late day.

But he has had the advantage of physical, moral and spiritual training, so that now he should not be showing any signs of slipping or waning.

But, seemingly, the higher he climbs to intellectual heights, the easier he seems tempted to lower his spiritual sights.

And in a day like this, with great prospects and enormous wealth, he appears to have lost his high rating of spiritual health.

The things that should engage his highest thought, the average man places at a discount that less achievements according to his design might be wrought.

He plays with the toys of

Wounded in Korea, Gary Soldier at Home on Furlough

GARY—Cpl. Perry Berry, who was wounded Jan. 7 in Suwon, Korea, during the retreat from Seoul, is home on a 14-day furlough, starting last week.

Corporal Berry was with the 8th Army in the first group of U.S. soldiers to be sent to Korea. He suffered shrapnel wounds in the knee and jaw, and both his feet were frozen. He received the Purple Heart while in a hospital in Japan.

Berry, a student at Roosevelt high school, joined the army in 1948 and took his basic training at Fort Dix, N.J. He spent two years with the Army of Occupation in Japan. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Perry Berry, Sr.

GOES TO SPEAK FOR YOUTH MEET

Former Congress man Andrew Jacobs will be the principal speaker at a Public Forum meeting to be held at the Central YWCA, 30 N. Pennsylvania st., Saturday, Feb. 4, at 8 p.m. The program is sponsored by American Youth for Political Action.

Other speakers will include Rev. Robert Gemmer, national chairman of the organization, and John Himm, Bloomington, state chairman. The forum is part of a week-end legislative institute sponsored by the organization.

MUNCIE MAN AUTHORS BOOK OF FICTION

MUNCIE—The widely known attorney and civic leader Lawrence E. Benadum, recently joined the ranks of Hoosier authors with a historical novel of the Civil War period, titled "Bate House."

The title of the novel has to do with the famous old hotel, which stood on the site of the present Claypool Hotel in Indiana.

The hero and heroine of the story are introduced on the day Abraham Lincoln spoke at the Bates House, enroute to Washington for his first inauguration. Mr. Benadum's story deals with various events of the Civil War. Many of the war were related to him by his father, a Civil War veteran. It is said.

Chas. H. Baylum

Funeral services for Charles H. Baylum, age 78, 450 N. Senate ave., were held in the Peoples United Home, Monday, Feb. 19. The burial was in Floral Park cemetery. He died Tuesday, Feb. 13.

He had lived in this city more than 13 years and previously had lived in Chicago. He was born at Birmingham, Ala. Before he retired in 1938 he had been employed by the Presto-Lite Company both in this city and in Chicago. He was a member of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church and the Senate Avenue PMCA.

Survivors include three sisters, Mrs. B. M. Clark, Birmingham; Mrs. Sallie Henry, Mobile, Ala.; and Mrs. Ida Washington, Chicago.

Iarah Johnson

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Johnson, age 55, 2240 Wheeler st., were held in the Peoples Funeral Home Monday, Feb. 19. The burial was in New Crown cemetery. She died in the General Hospital on Friday, Feb. 16.

Mrs. Johnson was born at New Castle, Ky., and had lived in this city over 34 years. She was a member of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church.

Survivors include her husband, John Johnson; a daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Brooks; a sister, Mrs. Leatrice Dixon; four brothers, George, Palmer, David and Edward Clifton; and three grandchildren.

passing peace, and even allows his mind to drift beyond the precincts of nearly every human activity measure.

On the other hand, God has always dealt fairly and squarely with man; even in his beginning, placed him in a luxurious garden in which to live, and let his soul expand.

But this kind treatment just seemed too much for him to take, and rather than settle peacefully down, his Creator he began to forsake.

Until now the Ten Commandments he has set out to overrule—and to have his own way, has begun to put lead in his Golden Rule.

Wars and strikes are overtaking him, but he keeps on just the same, cheating, lying and even cursing God's holy and righteous name.

Now as a last resort to free him from what seems an inevitable onslaught, our government has gone on a spending spree to give and buy everything that can be bought, but this is only a passing thrill; there is but one way out.

he MUST DO GOD'S WILL.

U.S. Treasury Sponsors Grade School Students' Art Contest

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The U. S. Treasury Department in cooperation with the National Citizens Society is currently sponsoring a national student art project which ends April 23.

The project, "Draw the Dream You Save For"—is open to every pupil (4th through 7th grade) attending a public, private or parochial school in the continental United States and Hawaii.

Teachers in public, private or parochial schools who want information about the art project may obtain it by writing Education Director, U. S. Savings Bond Division, Treasury Department, Washington 25, D. C.

In Any Medium
The primary purpose of "Draw the Dream You Save For" is to stimulate student activity in the Defense Bond and Stamp Program. It also encourages the pupils' creative interest and gives him a chance to depict the worthwhile goals his family can achieve through Defense Bonds and stamps. The drawings of the pupils' own impression of what he'd like to have, or of what he'd like his family to save for, can be done in any medium he selects—pencil, ink, crayon or water color. The drawing should be poster or cartoon style and should be no larger than 12 by 18 inches.

There is no entry fee, nor obligation on the part of the participants to purchase Defense Stamp or Bonds. Each school participating is invited to send up to five representative drawings to its State Savings Bond Office not later than midnight April 23. Recognition will be given each participating school by a Certificate of Participation signed by the Secretary of the Treasury. No drawings will be returned. All will become the property of the Treasury Department, which will have reproduction rights, with credit going to the artist and his school. A representative selection of the drawings will be chosen for exhibit in the White House the latter part of May.

Party Honors Plainfield Woman

PLAINFIELD—Mrs. Cassie Swann was honored at a surprise birthday party last Sunday night by Mes. rs. and Mesdames Travis Crowe and Churchill Swann and their family.

The Federation of the Sunbeams met last Sunday evening in Bethel AME Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Swann attended the annual religious service of the Pot of Alliance in Mt. Zion Baptist Church last Sunday.

Mrs. Nancy Swann had as supper guests last Monday night Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Swann and family in honor of Mrs. Cassie Swann's birthday.

Lelia Powell celebrated her birthday on February 19. The Trustee Aide will give a rally at Bethel AME Church during morning services on March 11. "World Day of Prayer" services were held here last Friday. Mrs. H. Greer rendered a solo during the services.

Rev. J. E. Reddick, presiding elder, was present at recent services in Bethel AME Church for the quarterly conference.

The senior missionary society met with Mrs. Eunice Powell last Thursday night.

Mrs. Cassie Swann was hostess to the Trustee Aide on Tuesday night of last week.

Mrs. Frances Michem and son, Indianapolis, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bryant and son, Edward.

Fenton Bluestein is reported improving. Miss Marie Swann is out again after being ill last week.

Richmond Choir Plans Musicales

By VIRCHER FLOYD JR.
RICHMOND—The junior choir of Bethel AME Church will present a musical program next Saturday afternoon at 3, with all churches of the city represented. The Townsend Community Center is currently sponsoring a membership drive.

Interracial Day Observed In Peru

PERU—Interracial Day was observed here last Sunday, with a mass meeting of local churches in First Methodist Church. Participating were Revs. James Dupee and R. W. Jackson.

Mrs. George F. Crossland, Sharon Crossland, and Miss Dorothy Crossland moved to Logan park, Friday night.

Rev. R. W. Jackson and Sharon Crossland attended the funeral of Mrs. Robert Foley in Logansport, last Saturday afternoon.

Miss Julia Ann Jackson sang a he Brotherhood program in Logansport, on Thursday night of last week. The program was sponsored by the Bethune study club.

GARY MUSICIAN IN JAPAN WITH ARMY

GARY—Now serving in Japan, a local musician, Cpl. David Dozier, was recently engaged in special work with a choral group and orchestra. Cpl. Dozier is a pianist, a graduate of Roosevelt high school of this city and Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga.

He majored in music at Morehouse, enlisted in September and took his basic training at Camp Hood, Tex. He is serving with the 10th Special Service Company. He is the son of Mrs. Mary Dozier.

WINS PROMOTION IN MARINE CORPS

GARY—Recently promoted to private first class in the Marine Corps, Lonell Young of this city received his "boot training" at Parris Island, S.C.

Pfc. Young, age 18, is the son of Mrs. Clifford A. Carter of this city. He enlisted in the Marines last November. He won the marksman medal at Parris Island when he fired a score of 207 out of a possible 250.

CORRECTION

Rev. Clarence T. R. Nelson of Indianapolis, executive secretary of the Lexington Conference of the Methodist Church, was the principal speaker recently for a Lenten service at the Main Street Methodist Church in Kokomo.

It was reported here incorrectly last week that Dr. James W. Golden, secretary of the National Board of Evangelism, was the speaker. Dr. Golden was taken ill returning from a trip to Cuba, and Rev. Nelson and other ministers filled his engagements throughout the Middle West.

The Windy City which attracts Golden Gloves from all over the country will be held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 26, 27, and 28.

CIVILIAN AID PROGRAM SPONSORED

A civilian aid program to instruct people what to do in event of an atomic bomb attack will be held at the Northwestern Community Center, 24th and Northwestern ave., Thursday, March 1, at 8:00 p.m. The program is sponsored by the Phillips-Highbaugh Post No. 9843, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Movies will be shown of defense against atomic bomb attacks and the program will include a talk on civilian defense and Red Cross operations. The general public is invited to attend.

SOUTH BEND—The Community Relations award presented annually by the National Conference of Christians and Jews was awarded to the city of South Bend for the year of 1951.

According to Dr. Everett R. Clinchy, New York, president of the organization, the award was granted for outstanding improvement in relations among religious and racial groups.

The award is not given on a competitive basis, nor does it intend to overlook the high level of good will prevailing in many cities of the land, Dr. Clinchy observed. It recognizes the noteworthy progress of a community toward a standard which is in keeping with the democratic ideals of the nation, he added.

Examples cited in the city of South Bend were as follows:

Protestant ministers, Catholic priests and Jewish rabbis met monthly under the leadership of NCCJ to consider common problems in the community.

Newspapers and radio stations in the community give wholehearted support to the city's efforts to better group relations.

The South Bend public school system has conducted an outstanding intergroup education program in cooperation with the American Council of Education and the NCCJ. It is one of the most successful programs in the nation.

"No Jimcrow" Claimed

There is no discrimination or segregation in public recreation, local churches, public transportation, health, welfare or hospital services. Discrimination is almost nonexistent in hotels and restaurants. In fact Negro and white people live together without conflict in many sections of the city.

There is no discrimination or segregation at any college, public, private or parochial school in South Bend.

Other considerations noted by the NCCJ were that beginning in September of 1950 qualified Negro teachers were employed in public schools for the first time, representing initiation of a practice that local intergroup agencies had long and energetically sought. Other organizations participating in the program included the Interfaith Women's Council, Michigan Brotherhood and the South Bend Council of Parent-Teachers Associations.

The work on the human relations front was spearheaded by Jewish rabbis, Catholic priests and Protestant ministers of the community, under the leadership of the NCCJ.

Open house will be held at the Indianapolis Servicemen's Centers, Inc., 111 N. Capitol avenue, on Wednesday, Feb. 28, from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. It was announced this week.

Members of the board of directors are Mrs. Harry C. Reid, Sr., president; Mrs. William Book, vice-president; Mrs. Dorothy F. Buschman, secretary and director; and Otto N. Frenz, treasurer.

Mrs. Thomas Stevenson is chairman of the house committee. Miss Helen Green is chairman and Miss Nellie Barth vice-chairman of the housing committee. This committee finds homes for servicemen and their families in this area.

Miss Helen Sherrin is chairman of the day staff, and Miss Grace Granger, chairman of the night staff. Mrs. Thomas Murphy and Mrs. Frederick Evans are program directors. Co-chairmen of the recording room are Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Alfred and Mr. and Mrs. James Genders. Mrs. W. R. Higgins is chairman of public relations.

Library Maintained

The library is furnished and maintained by the National Society of Colonial Dames of America in the state of Indiana. The personnel for the library is appointed by the patriotic service committee and the historic activities committee.

Charles Summer is chairman of the Red Cross First Aid room.

The Servicemen's Center is supported by the Indianapolis Community Chest and interested citizens. Anyone interested in leisure time entertainment for the Armed Forces is welcome to attend the open house program.

Persons participating in the program will include Gov. Henry F. Schriker, Mayor Phillip Bayl, Maj. Gen. Daniel B. Strickler, commanding officer of the 28th Division, Camp Atterbury; Col. John H. Gibson, post commander, Fort Harrison; Mrs. Harry Reid, Sr., president of the board of directors; Very Reverend August R. Fussenegger, director of Catholic Services of the Armed Forces, and Sgt. Weld Cox, chairman Men's Governing Committee.

THE TOURNAMENT SHOWS THE WAY

When the poet exclaimed "Ain't God good to Indiana!" we imagine he must have been thinking of the annual high school basketball tournament. In our opinion, there are not too many other things that we Hoosiers have to be complacently proud about.

But when it comes to The Tournament, this newspaper will fall in line with the rest of the folks and bear witness that here the Almighty Coach has exhibited some of His finest direction. It is not too much to say—something is too much to say at tourney time—that in The Tournament we are vouchsafed a little glimpse of Heaven. Or if it is true that there is no basketball in Heaven, then along with our fellow-Hoosiers we would rather go to the other place.

What we have in mind is that fair play and democracy prevail in The Tournament if they prevail anywhere on this basketball-shaped planet. A boy's a boy in The Tournament, be he red, green, blue, black, brown or indigo. And since 1943, when Negro, Catholic and private schools were admitted, a team's a team. It matters not whether a school has ten students or ten thousand—if it can put a team on the floor, it's in. And the more lowly the underdog, the louder the crowd will cheer.

All followers of The Tournament are prejudiced for their favorite teams, but if any are prejudiced on the grounds of race or color, then they are in a mighty small minority. Even the much-abused referees, we believe, do their level best—though it would help to have some Negro officials.

Sometimes we think it would be a good idea to keep The Tournament and reshape the rest of Indiana's institutions to conform to it.

FEPC BILL AND KOREA

At this writing the Mackey-Utterback Bill (House Bill 193) to put "teeth" in Indiana's FEPC setup has been shunted to the House Ways and Means Committee "A" in the state legislature.

Representative Jess Andrew, prominent Republican who moved to send the bill to his Ways and Means Committee after it had cleared the Labor Committee, denied that he was trying to shuffle the bill around until it got lost. He said the sole reason for his action was that bills calling for appropriations must go through Ways and Means.

We hope that Representative Andrew's deeds will square with his words, and that by the time you read this the FEPC Bill will have been speeded out of the Ways and Means Committee and to the floor of the House. With only about a week of the legislature's session remaining, both the House and Senate must act quickly if the measure is to become law.

Up to the time of this writing, the Mackey-Utterback Bill has received peculiar treatment at the hands of the legislators as well as the local press. It is known that this bill is the major item of business before the General Assembly, as far as Indiana's Negro citizens are concerned. It also has the strong support of labor and liberal white groups.

And yet, generally speaking, even the opponents of the bill have not presented arguments against it. Instead, it has been given the "silent treatment" by legislators and the daily press.

The reason for this, we believe, is that the bill's enemies would be ashamed to let their hypocrisy be known at a time of "war for freedom." In Korea, American boys and those of other nations are dying without benefit of race, creed or color. They are ostensibly giving their lives for democracy. But here at home in Indiana, men and women are denied jobs because of their color, or their nationality, or their religion. And by failing to establish a serious Fair Employment system, Indiana's legislators give notice that this discrimination will continue. It must be something to think about in a foxhole.

THE CASES OF "THE WILLIE McGEES"

Six times in the last five years Willie McGee of Laurel, Miss., has won a stay of execution of a death sentence for rape. The stays followed nation-wide protests of individuals and organizations.

The young man was convicted of the alleged rape of a middle-aged woman in Jones County, Mississippi, in 1945. Defense counsel in the case always have contended that the trial was a travesty on justice.

The alleged rape victim never identified McGee as her assailant. Again, she admitted in court that a sick child was in the bed with her. Further, her husband and two other children were in an adjoining room, yet she made no outcry.

The Mississippi Supreme Court set the new date of execution, March 20, in reply to a petition of the defense counsel. The defense counsel cited the need of more time to perfect a habeas corpus petition to be filed in federal court. The U. S. Supreme Court has refused three times to intervene in the case.

Crime against womanhood cannot be condoned at any place or time. Yet since the year McGee was convicted of the alleged crime of rape and sentenced to death, vicious rapists in six or more instances of record have gone unpunished in Dixieland.

Thus in the Southland depending upon racial identities of persons charged with the crime of rape, no penalties follow, or different penalties have been shaped for the same crime.

Late last year the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc., New Orleans, charged that the "death penalty for rape is a race penalty, an oppressive bludgeon used almost exclusively against the Negro in the South." The organization cited U. S. census figures in supporting its contention.

THE HEART FUND DRIVE

During the month of February the American Heart Association plans to raise over the nation eight million dollars for a campaign of research, education and community service.

The organization with an affiliated group in our community notes that ten million people, adults and children, in the country are suffering today with some form of heart or blood-vessel disease.

These ailments or diseases are styled the "No. 1 Killer" in the land today, and therefore the appeal is made on community and national levels for all possible support of the organization's program.

It is noted by the organization that the number of dollars sought is less than the number of sufferers from heart ailments or diseases. But the group also notes the number of deaths from the ailments are on the increase, and the campaign of education, research and community service is planned to retard the specter.

VOTES VERSUS VIGILS

The tragic sequel to the Martinsville tragedy has been written. Seven Negroes have paid with their lives for the crime with which they were charged. When Negroes are involved in crimes against whites, it is difficult to know when those Negroes have received justice in the courts. To say that Negroes generally receive justice for crimes against whites is to mock the frailties of human nature.

To say that a man can be prejudiced against Negroes all his life and for the duration of a given trial as jurymen such man can be free of prejudice, is to fly in the face of the laws of social psychology. No man on earth can be prejudiced 51 weeks in a year and suddenly become unprejudiced for the duration of his duty as jurymen.

This means that Negroes who are involved in crimes against whites never get justice, in that they are never tried by an unprejudiced jury. It is almost unthinkable to imagine that any jury is composed of 12 white men who are not prejudiced. The extent to which it is unthinkable to assume that on any given occasion 12 white men can be found who are unprejudiced in their attitudes toward Negroes, is the extent to which Negroes fail to get justice in the courts of the land.

Negroes Unfairly Tried One of the greatest tragedies of modern times is this self-same situation where Negroes are often tried for their lives by a jury that is prejudiced. This writer is not here debating the guilt or innocence of the Martinsville Seven. He is merely saying that they were not tried by an unprejudiced jury, as has been the case a thousand times before throughout the South and nation. It is doubtful if any Negro has ever been convicted or exonerated by an unprejudiced jury. This legal handicap posits one of the gravest problems of jurisprudence of our times.

When a group of Negroes and whites went down to the capitol of Virginia last summer to plead for a commutation of the sentence of the Martinsville Seven, the writer was among them. When the pleadings were ended by the final say of the mother of one of the condemned men, we all repaired to the capitol lawn where we talked among ourselves. One of the white women expressed a doubt as to whether our positions had been effective. Said she, "It looks as if the boys are doomed, for their case is now in politics."

This writer took it to mean that the Byrd machine had decreed that the boys must die. They died. It would now appear that the white woman knew whereof she spoke, and that she saw the gory sequel of which we write here. The point of this release is to show how limited are prayers and visits when votes are lacking. The case of the Martinsville Seven stirred the world. There were pressures on both sides, for a commutation and for their execution. It was a matter of pressure against pressure. Unfortunately for the boys, the pressure for execution was the greater and so they were called upon to pay with their lives the penalty that Virginia laws exacted.

Never Faced Point

The brilliant point that the NAACP able attorneys uncovered, to the effect that the death sentence for rape has been reserved for Negroes only, was never faced by the legal machinery of the state and nation. It was a telling point and although it was overruled by the state and federal courts, it still stands out in bold relief to the discredit of Virginia and the nation. It is bound to have its effects. It was a righteous contention and as such cannot be downed. On the eve of the multiple executions there were vigils and prayers but the executions went on apace. The reason? Negroes are relatively voteless in Virginia. The very fact that the execution of the Martinsville Seven was in politics is proof that the course of events might have been changed had Negroes commanded 250,000 or 300,000 votes to be cast in a given election.

A few votes would have won a commutation for the Martinsville Seven; but the votes were lacking; and so the tragic sequel to the Martinsville tragedy. It is going to be a great day in Virginia and throughout the nation when Negroes learn that votes and not vigils are the ultimate determinants of Negro destiny.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

"THE MIRACLE CURE" FOR CITY'S SLUMS

To The Editor The Recorder Dear Sirs:

A reprint from Coronet magazine appeared recently in The Recorder of J. P. Folinsbee's article or portions of it, "Indiana Finds a Cure for Slums."

I am sure he is sincere in his article, but I really believe he did not give a whole picture of the Redevelopment of Area A, as it is described in the Slum Clearance program.

Since the citizens of Indianapolis had to pay additional taxes for the program it was interesting that Flanner House, or in other words, Mr. Cleo Blackburn, had perfected a miracle drug that cures slums.

In the article of four pages only about three hundred words were given to the slum cure program. We know that slums in any area are not works of art and we find them everywhere.

Exorbitant rents wherever Negroes live, even in the latest Negro project, Barrington Heights, could very well use a drop of penicillin from the Blackburn dispensary.

I am sure that when Mr. Folinsbee looked out of the windows of Flanner House, he saw only rundown property. Instead of giving its immediate vicinity a face-lifting by its miracle drug, Flanner House went blocks away to clean up the slums.

It reminds me so much of national affairs where living is being made easier for people across the ocean, but not at home.

I have lived in the north-west slums many years. In fact I was in the girls' club when Flanner House was located on Colton street. In those days Flanner House aimed to improve the physical, financial and social conditions of Negroes.

Yet it is strange it only became a potent force when Mr. Blackburn came. To uphold this theory there are no records available of the 38 years' work done by the Flanner House before 1936 or before "C. B."

In 1917 and 1918 whole families came to Indianapolis from the South. These people in 19 years, before the coming of the dynamic head of Flanner House, had either through night schools or experience learned to use modern conveniences and how to make a living.

Exploiting landlords, who took all and gave nothing, were with us then and still are with us. They are being aided and abetted by the Slum Clearance program.

Will Be 10 Years

To be sure that the Flanner House miracle had not built homes overnight, I inspected the first 21 dwellings of Flanner House Homes and I am sure Mr. Folinsbee did too. I found one nearly completed, a basement half done and a big hole for the third. At that rate it will be nearly ten years before 100 homes follow by self help.

It is admirable that those men have learned carpentry and are building their own homes. But they are handicapped in having to make a living and build or work on houses part time. I wonder if

Mr. Folinsbee saw that, or the pretty pictures and floral explanation of what is planned. The whole country's attention has been attracted to the Indianapolis slum program. What really was planned and what really has been done?

The law was set up to acquire the land and clear it of all houses except four. The land was to be sold to the highest bidder. One small area has been acquired and cleared. It was not the most desirable tract, facing the business section of gas stations, etc.

However, it was given to the Flanner House and not through the process laid out by the Redevelopment law, but as a gift for work well done.

Sell Through Fear Homes have been sold by owners in the area through fear, coercion or to get mental relief from a real estate agent, or shall we say a Redevelopment representative ever present at your door.

Then there has developed a defeatist program of why spend more money, to improve what you have "since as an American citizen" you have no recourse to law.

There was no housing program in the original act, so that was the controversial issue. Flanner House Homes stepped in to do its bit though its 21 homes are still on paper. The Redevelopment program did not want federal assistance and shouted it from the housetops, but now it is asking for it.

What has happened to private enterprise which sold the new idea throughout the length and breadth of our country? What has happened to the people who owned property in the

VOICE FROM THE GALLERY

By ANDREW W. RAMSEY

NEGROES REJECT THE FOOL'S GOLD OF THE WHITE CHURCH

It is unusually difficult for us who have been brought up in the Christian Church and taught that the church held the answers to all our problems, to look at that institution critically and subject it to the same criteria that we use to appraise other institutions. But I have come to the conclusion after much study and reflection and conversation with others who are students of race relations in the United States that not only has the white Christian church, Protestant and Catholic, not materially aided in combating the American evils of segregation and discrimination; but that it has been and still is among the leading advocates of racial separatism and that it played a large part in initiating the vicious practices.

MR. RAMSEY

Historically the use of separation as a legal and social weapon for the suppression of people not favored by the ruling clique was first instituted among civilized peoples by the Catholic Church in 213 A.D. by means of the Edict of Nantes. This edict began the systematic persecution of the Jews which was stepped up by the Spanish Inquisition, which applied the methods later used by lynchers in the Bible Belt of the United States.

Justified Slavery The rationale of Negro slavery was written by a Catholic priest by the name of Bartholome de Las Casas, who invented the Hamitic theory as a Biblical excuse for the enslavement of blacks for the benefit of Her Catholic Majesty, Queen Isabel of Spain. The Catholic Church, which of late has made a bid for Negro communicants, did not disapprove when its clergymen and lay members were large slaveholders, and the Catholic Church even today has very few Negro priests. It has many segregated Negro parishes and Negro schools, and there are many Catholic schools that do not have Negro students. The Jesuits, one of the most progressive of Catholic brotherhoods, attempted in 1949 to justify that out of 23,494 pupils in their lower schools, only 20 Negroes were enrolled. The excuse was "the character of Jesuit schools, which normally are classical and moderately scientific in their curricula, and whose appeal to the colored is therefore limited." This order maintains a segregated training school for Negro priests in Mississippi.

The position of the white Protestant Church toward the Negro is better known because America is predominantly Protestant. For instance it is generally known by Negroes that the Church is the most segregated institution in American life, and that most purely Negro denominations were born because whites refused to let Negroes worship with them.

It also has been established that less than one percent of the Negro professing Christians belong to mixed congregations, and that the vast majority of white church members are vehemently opposed to Negroes being admitted to their congregations. Most of the larger denominations and some of the smaller ones maintain Negro congregations and missions, which the faithful support by money and lip-service.

Some Come Slumming

It is interesting to attend these all-Negro congregations at the time of their anniversary and hear the Negro "historian" of the occasion laud the white brethren who gave the few colored brethren a church of their own out of the goodness of their heart. In many instances the "historian" knows the truth—that the Negroes were evicted from the white congregation—and he is merely saving the conscience of the white visitors who have come slumming for the occasion.

It is not only in church membership that the white Protestant shows his concern for racial separatism, but in his education, charitable and medical institutions as well.

In our own community we have the Disciples of Christ, who maintain a separate department of segregated Negro churches and operate quota-ridden Butler University; and the Methodist Church which not only has segregated churches but operates the Methodist Hospital, which maintains a rigid anti-Negro policy.

These denominations and institutions can be multiplied many times as we examine the American scene, and they are part of the reason why the intelligent Negro does not turn to the white Christian for the solution to his problems. He has found that politics and labor organizations, together with the courts, provide more aid and comfort than the white claimants to the name of Christian, and he is coming to believe that if Christianity ever comes to America it will not come through the white church.

MISCELLANEOUS MUSINGS

EVERYDAY PROBLEMS (I): ACQUIRING A HOME

A few years ago I met a high school senior who owned three houses. He had money in the bank and had chosen the girl he intended to marry. He had sound judgment and his life expectations were likely to turn out well. The buying or building of a home starts numerous men and families on the road to prosperity if the transaction is entered into properly.

It is an unfortunate fact, however, that most persons are without the knowledge needed to acquire a home without risking loss. This applies to the educated as well as to the uneducated.

In view of the fact that buying a home is for nearly all men and women the largest and most important investment of their lives, one marvels that so many proceed blindly in their efforts to become home owners.

All persons with whom they have to deal were inclined to give everyone his due; their childlike simplicity and gullibility would not be so bad. But too often they leave everything to individuals whose only concern is to take advantage of them.

The following actual happenings should make clear the necessity of knowing what you are doing when buying or building a home.

A preacher in this city gave me these details of how he went about purchasing a home:

The owner simply inquired "Reverend, would you like to buy this house?" "I would," he replied. "The price is $3,500.00. You may pay me $350.00 down and $35.00 a month." "I'll take it," the minister agreed.

The seller gave the gentleman of the cloth a notebook. She suggested that he record every payment in his book, telling him she would do the same in another book. When his payments totaled what he owed they were to compare records and the place was to belong to him.

That was all. Nothing was said about interest, a mortgage, taxes, insurance, an abstract of title, a deed, or the result of missing a payment or payments.

In five years he paid $2,450.00 on the place. This was $480.00 yearly and $40 5 6 monthly. When he lost his job as elevator operator in a bank the lady put him out.

The above story seems too unreal for belief. Maybe it is. But it certainly is not impossible. All I know about it is what the preacher told me. I believe he stated facts.

Another Indianapolis man told me that he paid on a home for 29 years without ever completing his payments. He gave no particulars as to why he lost the place. He was anxious to have a roof of his own over the heads of his wife and many children. He is a fine man and at present operates a small business successfully.

A few years ago an Indianapolis man contracted to buy a house in the 2200 block of North Capitol Avenue. The price agreed on was $8,800.00. His down payment was $800.00. For three years he paid sixty dollars monthly.

He was ousted when he missed a payment. He doubted he could not understand or did not try to comprehend the agreement he had signed. The $2,960.00 paid the seller went as rent.

The buyer not only had no further legal interest in the property but in addition to the $2,960.00 was out several hundred dollars for taxes and repairs.

The next article will touch briefly on such items as how much to spend for a home, financing a home, reasons for not keeping payments up, and costs of owning a home.

HEALTH HINTS

ABDOMINAL PAIN

"Doctor, I have a pain in my stomach, what's the trouble?" This might be an easily explainable dilemma on the day following a big holiday feast.

A patient with an acute, sudden pain in the abdomen presents a knotty problem to the physician. The doctor must decide, and decide quickly, the correct diagnosis, considering dozens of conditions which may be causing the pain. A history of the patient and his illnesses, a physical examination and laboratory tests help the doctor make the diagnosis.

ONE THING IS MOST IMPORTANT—IN CASE OF ABDOMINAL PAIN, ADMINISTER NOTHING BY MOUTH, ESPECIALLY A LAXATIVE, AND CALL THE FAMILY DOCTOR.

Pain is the body's warning system to tell you that something is wrong. Pain may indicate a minor functional disturbance or it may be the warning of a serious condition that should receive immediate attention.

Inasmuch as there are many causes of abdominal pain, it is important that self-diagnosis be discarded in favor of an accurate, thorough diagnosis by the most skillful means.

Modern medicine has devised methods of determining the cause and location of abdominal pain. It is important that the physician be given a complete history of this pain, the frequency of occurrence, the relation of the intake of food and liquids to the pain, and past injuries to the region of the pain that might have been taken lightly at the time.

After a thorough examination and a skillful diagnosis, the cause can be properly treated.

STATE MEET OF HIGH SCHOOL NET SQUADS OFF WITH A BANG

They're off! And here's how the Negro teams and some of the mixed squads fared in the draw for the hardwood sectionals that opened this week.

Indianapolis Attacks—In "bad bracket" of capital city tourney, along with Tech, Ben Davis, Cathedral. Faced Sacred Heart, twice defeated by Tigers this season but no pushover, in opening round.

Gary Roosevelt—High-scoring team in same bracket with Emerson and Froebel.

Evansville Lincoln—Faced Memorial, strong tourney favorite, in opening game Friday.

New Albany Scribner—Opened against New Salisbury Wednesday morning, in same bracket with New Albany (Jeffersonville sectional).

Jeffersonville Taylor—Opened against New Washington Wednesday afternoon; winner likely to meet Jeffersonville.

Glenn—Charlie Session, Oscar Session, Cliff Phillips and Co. opened against Terre Haute Laboratory on Tuesday; winner to play Garfield, and then likely to meet Gerstmeier, Glenn seen as "People's Choice" for state crown.

Gary Froebel—Unbeaten Blue Devils, with John Moore and Herman Banks, rolled over weak Horace Mann Tuesday, likely to meet Emerson or Roosevelt in semifinal round. Experts' choice to win the state.

Muncie Central—Opening against Selma Friday; likely meet Burriss in semifinal.

Marion—A shoo-in to take its 8-team sectional with St. Paul the next day on Thursday.

Anderson—Indians drew puny Pendleton for opener Thursday, seen meeting Lapel or Summitville in final game.

Madison—Yes, the State Champion Cubs are interracial this year, with Ralph Whitehead the septia player. Favored to win over North Madison and go on to sectional title.

Lafayette Jefferson—We are told Harold Harris is on this high-rated team. No trouble at all in sectional—first victim, Montmorenci.

South Bend Central—Featuring Stan Davis; opened against Central Catholic and had hands full with other South Bend teams and Washington-Clay.

South Bend Washington—More Negroes than whites on this squad, led by high-scoring Bill Gilkey. Beat Adams in first game.

Connersville—Chuck Rowan and crew opened against White-water, favored to take sectional.

Rushville—Led by Lowell Moore; opening against Arlington and favored to win tourney.

Richmond—Faced plenty trouble from Milton Wayne County champs, in opener, as well as Centerville and possibly Cambridge City later.

Fort Wayne Central—Should get by Monroeville, then meet Fort Wayne North in epic tilt.

Indianapolis Cathedral—Irish, starring Eddie Woods, faced Warren Central in opener and then due to meet Tech or Broad Ripple.

Anderson St. Mary's—Drew strong Lapel in first round.

Glenn High's Ace Cager Makes New Record, 58 Points

GLENN—"Cheerful Charlie" Session, Glenn high school's famed center, got under the wire with a record-breaking 58-point performance here Saturday.

Session had to snare his whoppin' total in the last game of the season, against Oblong, Ill., because a rival netter had topped his previous best performance the night before.

The dramatic rivalry began as Session scored 54 markers against Pleasantville on Feb. 10. That was the highest total in one game for an Indiana schoolboy this year.

Then on Feb. 16 Dave Ummell, performing for Wakarusa, counted 55 against Millersburg.

Writers who said that ended it, didn't know Session. He came back on the next and final night of the season to loopy in 20 field goals and 18 free throws, pacing the Pirates to a 107-38 win over hapless Oblong.

Cliff Phillips, another septia player of the Glenn team, scored 22 points in the same contest, while Oscar Session got 6.

Sporting News Names I. U. Cager in Top Billing

BILL GARRETT

ST. LOUIS—Bill Garrett, pride of Shelbyville, Ind., and the only Negro basketball player in the Big Ten, was named last week to the All-America team of The Sporting News, the bible of U. S. sports.

The Indiana University senior was named forward on the mythical squad chosen by Sporting News experts throughout the nation. For the first time the team was composed of eight players instead of five.

Named "Player of the Year" was Sherman White, 6'8" septia star of Long Island University. Garrett was described as the "fastest man in the Big Ten and key in Branch McCracken's fast break."

Expanding on the reasons for choosing the agile Hoosier, Cy Kritzer wrote:

"Garrett, forward on the first team, is the first Negro to become a star in the Big Ten and the fastest man in the conference. For three years this speed king led Indiana in scoring. He plays the pivot as few others have handled the post. Billy so excelled as a feeder that he rarely took the first shot. He compiled most of his scoring totals on follow-ups and rebounds."

In the first 14 games this season, Garrett limited his opponents to an average of 6.1 points a game while more than doubling that output. Above all, he was a playmaker. The game has none better than the Hoosier star on the fast break."

The Sporting News selections unconsciously paid a tribute to the annual Indiana high school tournament. Two of the first-team choices and one on the second team were athletes who took part in the Final Four at Butler Fieldhouse in 1947.

Garrett was star center of the Shelbyville state champs that year. Clyde Lovellette of Kansas, named All-America center, played pivot for Terre Haute Garfield, which lost in the final game.

Bowling News

By NETTIE GEE

Local bowlers had a chance last Sunday to get acquainted with some officials of the American Bowling Congress at a meeting held in the Claypool Hotel. I was among those attending the meeting and saw a movie, "America Bowls," presented by the ABC.

There was a short quiz on some of the things bowlers should know. It was surprising to learn how few bowlers knew the correct answers to the questions asked.

Some of the answers follow:

The distance from the Number 1 pin to the foul line is 60 feet. The maximum weight of a regulation ball is 16 pounds.

In the event of a so-called impossible split, such as 7-10, 4-6 or 7-9, 8-10, etc., may the team captain agree to concede one or two pins, whatever the case may be? For example, may the bowler take nine. The answer is no. The bowler has to shoot at every pin following his chances, to complete his game.

The regulation heights of a bowling pin is 15 inches. The maximum score a bowler can make in a ten-spares game is 191.

The American Bowling Congress was organized in 1895. The spots on which bowling pins are placed are 2 1/4" in diameter. These answers may add to the knowledge of bowlers and bowling fans, and to their interest in watching or reading about bowling.

Ladies of the city are filing their entries for the Indianapolis Star's tournament to be held at an early date. Events include singles, doubles and teams.

Anita Johnson is a new member of the "500 Club." A member of the Pat's Place team, she bowled 566, trying for a 600. She bowled 202 in the first game, 222 second game, and dropped to 142 in the last game.

ALTHEA GIBSON WINS TENNIS TITLE IN JAMAICA

KINGSTON, Jamaica (ANP)—Miss Althea Gibson, playing from Florida A & M College, recently won her first major tennis title when she took the Caribbean Lawn Tennis Championship.

To win her title she defeated Betty Rosenquest of South Orange, N. J., 5-7, 6-4. She opened the net with a 6-0, 6-4 conquest of Edith Ann Sullivan of Belmont Mass.

Among the tennis queens seeking the Caribbean laurels were highly rated Barbara Scofield of San Francisco, Mrs. Baba Madden Lewis of New Orleans, Mass., and Beverly Baker of Santa Monica, Calif.

SUGAR RAY PAYS TRIBUTE TO DETHRONED JAKE LA MOTTA

CHICAGO (ANP)—Both Ray (Sugar) Robinson and Jake LaMotta sweated more in their dressing rooms after the fight for the 60-pound title which Jake lost and Robinson won than they did in the ring.

More than 200 newsmen were at the ringside, and all of them wanted to talk to the two principals involved.

Robinson did not talk about his future, but he paid this tribute to Jake:

"LaMotta always is in condition. He is a tough, rugged, strong boy."

He added, however, that Fritz Zivic, whom he defeated twice, was the toughest man he ever faced.

George Gainford, his manager did most of the talking for Robinson. When he finished it appeared that Robinson will tackle every champion available. He seemed most interested in Joey Maxim's light-heavyweight crown.

When asked whether or not LaMotta would get a return fight, Gainford said:

"Jake can have a return bout in June or any time he wants it—at the right price."

Commenting on the 30-30 percentage deal reported to be in the contract for a return bout, Gainford declared:

"Did he give us that kind of deal?"

LaMotta literally had nothing to say. Lying on a raining table and covered with blood-soaked towels, the dethroned middleweight king said:

"I don't know what I'm going to do. Yes, I'll fight him again, I guess."

I. U. Cagers Lose To Illini Five In Crucial Game

CHAMPAIGN, Ill.—Taking a nosedive after All-American Bill Garrett was whistled to the bench, Indiana lost the crucial game in the Big Ten basketball race here Monday to Illinois, 71-65.

Garrett's 14 points sparked the Hoosiers to a 35-34 halftime lead, but he picked up four personals guarding giant Bob Peterson, and Coach Branch McCracken gave him a rest.

The Shelbyville ace returned to the contest midway the second half. Though he scored only two additional free throws, his floor play paced Indiana to a 58-53 advantage. Then Referee Gil MacDonald called the fifth foul on him. Sportscasters and reporters said they were unable to detect the alleged infraction.

With Garrett out of there, Indiana fell to pieces and it was only a matter of time.

The Hoosiers retained a mathematical chance to beat out the Illini for the Conference crown. With a game-and-a-half lead, Illinois had three to play, all on the road—against Ohio State, Northwestern and Michigan State. Indiana faced home games against Purdue (Feb.

Club Owners Map First Half NAL Schedule

CHICAGO (ANP)—Club owners of the Negro American League, meeting here last week, mapped a schedule for the 1951 season.

Games for the first half were lined up as follows:

May 6—New Orleans Eagles at Birmingham Black Barons; Kansas City Monarchs at Memphis Red Sox; Philadelphia Stars vs. Chicago American Giants, and Indianapolis Clowns at Baltimore Elites.

May 13—Chicago at New Orleans, Kansas City at Birmingham, Philadelphia at Baltimore, Indianapolis at Memphis.

May 20—Philadelphia vs. Indianapolis, Birmingham at Chicago, Kansas City vs. New Orleans, and Baltimore at Memphis.

May 27 and 30—Memphis at Kansas City, Indianapolis at Chicago, Philadelphia at Birmingham and Baltimore at New Orleans.

June 3—Memphis at New Orleans, Birmingham vs. Indianapolis, Chicago at Baltimore, and Kansas City vs. Philadelphia.

June 10—Birmingham at Baltimore, Philadelphia at Kansas City, Chicago at Memphis, and Indianapolis vs. New Orleans at Nashville.

June 17—Philadelphia at New Orleans, Baltimore, Chicago Memphis at Birmingham, and Indianapolis at Kansas City.

June 24—New Orleans at Chicago, Philadelphia at Baltimore, Kansas City vs. Indianapolis, and Birmingham at Memphis.

July 1—Kansas City vs. Chicago, Philadelphia vs. Indianapolis, New Orleans at Birmingham, and Memphis at Baltimore.

July 4—Kansas City at Chicago, Birmingham at New Orleans, Indianapolis vs. Philadelphia, and Baltimore at Memphis.

24). Iowa (Feb. 26), a trip to Michigan (March 3) and a home game with Wisconsin (March 5).

If the Hoosiers win all their remaining contests and Illinois loses two, the title will go to Indiana. If Illinois loses one while the Hoosiers make a clean sweep, a tie will result.

Monarchs to Start Camp in Early April

KANSAS CITY (ANP)—The Kansas City Monarchs will begin spring training the first week in April. During the coming season the Monarchs expect to fight their opponents in the Negro American League and also to withstand the assault of the draft.

The draft is expected to cause a lot of trouble for the K. C. youth movement.

At any moment now, the Monarchs are expected to announce the signing of two sensational high school stars, David McGary 19, and Virgil Alonzo Givens, 18.

McGary is a hard-throwing right-handed pitcher standing 6 feet 4 inches and weighing 180 pounds. He is a graduate of Dunbar High Continued on Page 16

"Where Danger Lives" Billed at Avenue Sun. Thru Wed.

ALOTTA folks are trying to guess the reasons for Officer Clyde Ashby quitting the police force. . . Nobody has come up with the answer as yet. . . But our guess is that the fella has gotten tired of taking a lotta stuff from certain superiors. . . The way we get it, the colored officers are being shoved around. . . Even to the extent of not giving them credit for certain arrests. . . The boys claim that several times they have been relieved of their prisoners by certain ofay sergeants, who turned them over to ofay coppers, who also got the glory. . . We believe Chief Roul should do something about this situation pronto, and try to make the police department a better place to work. The chief should also instruct his men to make more arrests in other sections of the city, and give the Avenger a little rest. . . There surely must be law violations going on in other section of the city. . . What about the Southside, Northside, Eastside and other sections of downtown Indianapolis. . . Then again, there must be some ofay joints violating the law. . . How about it Chief, let us read about some gray joints every now and then. . .

ANOTHER SERGEANT AND CAPTAIN, PLEASE!

MRS. MILDRED WILLIAMS, 1142 N. CAPITOL, suffered a broken arm and leg when struck by an automobile at Michigan and Indiana last Saturday nite. . . The driver of the car is alleged to have been drunk, according to the investigating officers. His trial came up before Judge Alex Clark this week and was postponed until March 8. . . Mrs. Williams is in General Hospital. . . Shame on the person who stole the money out of Mrs. Williams' purse! And also the person who took her shoe. . . Strange as it might seem, the billfold was returned to Mrs. Williams' residence by mail. Persons witnessing the accident are urged to contact Scotty Scott or J. S. Gibson at The Recorder, Li. 1545 or Li. 7049.

We CAN'T understand why the drug store in the 500 block and the tavern at 10th and West won't buy any whiskey from our colored salesman. . . Here are people doing bizzness in our neighborhood and refusing to patronize one of the people who make it possible for them to live in fine homes in restricted areas. . . You folks out there can change the picture if you get the idea.

AMONG THOSE attending the Robinson-LaMotta fite in Chicago were: George (Oriental Cafe) Graham, Amos (Barbecue) Hartwell, Opal (Newshound) Tandy, Jim (I Report the News) Cummings, Mose Douglass, Cy (Bizzman) Graham, Wesley (Sports Promoter) Jackson, Atty. Edward N. (Big-game Hunter) Suber and Hiawatha (Fite Mgr.) Gray. Mr. Gray left by plane Saturday for New York City to be on hand when Archie Moore tackled Jimmy Bivens Wednesday nite, Feb. 21. . . Mose (Playboy) Long missed the fite because of an operation (on him) in General Hospital. . . Hortense (Playgirl) Bowman also attended the fite.

HENRY (HANK) LEE, proprietor of the Memory Lane Sales Co., 635 Indiana, wants his friends and the general public to know that he sells colored newspapers and magazines from all sections of the country. . . He also handles records and novelties, and is a notary public. . . For further info call Plaza 3657.

IN A TALK with Herb Willis, the prominent mortician, we learned that his wife broke her arm and leg as a result of a fall on a slippery driveway at her home a few weeks back. . . Her condition is much improved at this writing. . .

MARK VAN BUREN, the nationally known umpire, jumped in town from New Orleans for the Mardi Gras last Friday. . . Bill Lampkins, familiar figure along the stem for many years, was buried 2 wks. back. Mr. Lampkins died in Veterans Hospital. . . Bob (Mr. Baseball) Matthews is up and struttin' after a recent attack of the flu. Herb (Juke Box) Davis is back on the stem from a recent operation. . . Mr. Davis and Arnold (I Love to Play) Bryant were seen with their heads together t'other bright. A. C. Nichols of Chicago is visiting the George Grammas, and helping out at the Oriental Cafe. . . Visited with Horace Stone and Genevieve Jones in General Hospital Tuesday. . . Mr. Stone expects to be home next week. . . Miss Jones underwent an operation and is doing fine. . . So is Mrs. Mildred Williams on B-2. Mrs. Bernice Gibson of 1039 West 28th st. is in General Hospital for an eye operation. For further info on the lady's condition call Floyd Alexander at Wa. 5826.

A NICE SCRIBE jumped in from Pfc. Leo Lesser, Jr., the lad who receives his mail by way of San Francisco. . . Says Leo: "It is really cold up in this part of the country. But we are again living in Korean huts with the fireplace under the floors. I thought for a while that I would have to drop yuo a scribe on some toilet paper. That's the only kind of paper we've got around here. Give my best regards to all the gang and ask them to take a drink for me. We roasted a pheasant last night but it looked so bad that I couldn't eat any of it." Mr. Lesser's letters are mailed from "Somewhere in Korea."

WE PICKED UP on Bert and her Buddies, current attraction at the Club Savoy, t'other nite, and found the combo rockin' the spot with swing and song. The outfit is being held over and for good reasons, too. . . They are mellow and should play to a capacity house over the week-end.

ARCHITECT PAUL R. WILLIAMS will design the monument to Al Jolson's memory in Los Angeles. The cost is 75 G's. . . Jolson left much of his money to charity. . . Mr. Williams is colored. . . The Joe Louis-Andy Walker fite in San Francisco Friday nite is a sellout. . . More than 16,000 seats sold with an estimated gross of 90 G's.

CONFESSION: Robert Mitchum hears Claude Rains make Faith Domergue admit her treachery, in "Where Danger Lives," billed for showing at the Avenue Sunday.

JOHN GARFIELD and Patricia Neal in a romantic interlude from the much-heralded Warner Bros. action drama, "The Breaking Point," which starts Tuesday at the Park.

ROBERT MITCHUM AND CLAUDE RAINS STAR IN PIX

JOHNNY HODGES TO RECORD FOR JATP-MERCURY

NEW YORK (ANP)—Prior to his debut as an orchestra leader at the Blue Note Cafe, Chicago Johnny Hodges will take his crew of musicians into a recording session for Norman (JATP) Granz and the Mercury jazz series.

The waxing will be held on Feb. 26.

VAUGHAN-GARNER-YOUNG PLAY CARNEGIE HALL

NEW YORK (ANP)—A package jazz concert, produced by the Al Gale Agency, opens at Carnegie Hall Wednesday. Artists appearing on the program are Sarah Vaughan, Errol Garner and his trio, and Lester Young with his orchestra.

Romance and perils run riot in the striking plot of "Where Danger Lives," the new Warner Bros. picture, starring Robert Mitchum, Claude Rains, Faith Domergue, and Patricia Neal.

Marking the much-discussed Miss Domergue's film debut, the picture deals with the deceptively romantic plan of a girl who is on the verge of madness, to get rid of her elderly husband and to elope with a younger man. Rains enacts the part of the luckless husband and Mitchum portrays a young doctor who becomes infatuated with the girl and finds himself a victim of her fantastic scheme. Maureen O'Sullivan and Charles Kemper head the supporting cast of the John Farrow production, which Farrow directed. RKO Radio distributes.

Gary Cooper, Mills Bros., Billy Daniels at Walker Sunday

GARY COOPER kneels beside the body of Steve Cochran, who has been bested in a gun duel. The scene is from "Dallas," the heralded Warner Bros. drama, which opens Sunday at the Walker. Also showing is "When Your Smiling," with Mills Bros. and Billy Daniels.

Antonio Moreno, idol of the silent screen, celebrated 38 years as a motion picture actor with his performance in "Dallas," Warner Bros. Technicolor adventure epic, coming to the Walker Theatre on Sunday. Moreno debuted as a five-dollar-a-day extra in "The Voice of Millions," and later became a great star for D. W. Griffith and Vitaphone, being particularly noted as a dashing serial hero. Gary Cooper, Ruth Roman and Steve Cochran star in "Dallas," which features Raymond Massey.

Barbara Payton, and Leif Erickson. Billy Daniels, the night club singing sensation who zoomed to overnight popularity, makes his screen debut in Columbia Pictures' "When You're Smiling," Sunday at the Walker Theatre with a host of other radio and recording artists. Daniels sings "That Old Black Magic" and "Deed I Do," in the film, which also features Frankie Laine as an actor-singer. Bob Crosby and his original Bobcats, the Mills Bros. the Modernaires and Kay Starr.

John Garfield Stars In Pix at Park Tues.

Warner Bros. much-heralded action drama, "The Breaking Point," opens Tuesday at the Park Theatre.

Co-starring popular John Garfield and Patricia Neal, the story concerns a luckless fishing boat captain whose financial difficulties lead him to smuggling and murder.

"Taffy" Is Big City Negro Novel:

NEW YORK JUST PICKED UP on a rather cool novel called "Taffy," (258 pp. NEW YORK: Crown Publishers, $3) by a guy named Philip B. KAYE, and for those folks tired of cotton patch, chain gang, "Yas Suh, Boss!" literature about Negroes, this "Taffy" spiel is just what the doctor ordered. It's BIG CITY all the way and once you start it you don't put it down, even if the old lady has better cakes and sorghum syrup and sausage for breakfast and is hollering up the hall at you as if the house were afire. Taffy JOHNSON is a Harlem Sidewalk Kid whose mother has personal ambition beyond being the stay-at-home wife of a struggling, meek, spunkless Pullman Porter who is content to shake sheets the rest of his life. How she through selfish drive forces the issue until the family has enough money to move off Lenox Avenue in Harlem to an exclusive white section in Brooklyn involves some fine, sympathetic writing. The turbulence of juvenile delinquency on the sidewalks and byways of Harlem show keen analytical insight on the part of Mr. KAYE, a Negro, writing his first novel, and the explosive manner in which he tells the story of "Taffy" frequently reaches unenvisioned heights in the book's 258 pages. The story line follows somewhat the pattern of Richard Wright's "Native Son" and to an extent, that of Willard Motley's "Knock on Any Door." Brother KAYE reaches new heights in the art of writing in print and exploring the love habits of his characters to hitherto forbidden extents. You'll sympathize with Taffy, the neglected kid; you'll holler over the exaggerations of Brooklyn church society drawn from real life characters; the scarlet girl, CLEO, will stay in your mind long after you finish the book. It's a sleeper volume and deserves wide reading.

YOU GET A GLOOMY FEELING when you read of how they knocked off the MARTINISSE SEVEN down in Virginia for allegedly "grabbing" a white woman. It makes you think real deep when you realize that things seem to be closing in on Negroes everywhere, in spite of the budding world wide war to "free the world," or to "extend the democratic way of life" to the Koreans, Eskimos, Fijis, Hottentots, and everybody else who can be put to work digging up gold, ivory, diamonds, sweet potatoes, picking cotton, and so on. Despite all the hollering to the contrary, the determination of the STATE OF VIRGINIA to "fry" the SEVEN was not sidetracked as was the STATE OF ALABAMA over a dozen years ago which backed down in the face of worldwide protest at the plan to execute the NINE SCOTTSBORO BOYS. Not that punishment shouldn't fit the crime, but the pattern of punishment should also be broad enough to take in the crackers, the white supremacists, the Ku Kluxers, the hillbillies, the big city absentee landlord, and others who rape, pillage, burn, shoot down and otherwise mistreat an American minority which can't fight back and whose sole crime is that its ancestors did all the hard and dirty work to build an empire others are now enjoying. And they're going to "fry" a lot more down the line—maybe, the TRENTON SIX. Later on, it'll be the CHARLESTON FIVE, the LOUISVILLE TWELVE, the DALLAS NINE, the ST. LOUIS THIRTEEN, the BOSTON FIVE, the NEW YORK SEVEN, who knows? We haven't any protection except "WORD MERCHANTS" whose main forte is to offer the public prayer and hope that "Bye 'n' Bye, When De Maw'nin' Comes." To hell with the "maw'nin'," we want something done so we can sleep in peace TONIGHT!

LET'S SPIN A FEW: Whoever is writing those lyrics for LITTLE ESTHER, the blues churper, should have his or her mouth washed out. Here's a juvenile singing some of the most suggestive fifth one can imagine. And on records for sale, too! After all these years, Sonny (dramas) Greer, has cut out on Duke ELLINGTON'S band. Joe LIGGINS "Pink Champagne" is still running strong. Eunice DAVIS "Route 66" (DEERY) has a kick to it in the strong beat behind her torrid vocalizing. Dig it. Amos Milburn's "Bad, Bad Whiskey" is a song of social significance, despite the questionable emphasis on whiskey drinking.

PAUL BASCOMB'S search for new faces for Detroit's CLUB EL-SINO has reached Harlem where ex-ZANZIBAR chorines and showgirls are weighing offers to quit the local scene. Speaking of Detroit, two widely known chicks on the play front where the flowers grow, are in dutch with the law in the Motor City, according to reports reaching here, and were supposedly snatched either for shoplifting or having "snow" before it fell! The Joe LOUIS Bandwagon is rolling to California following that decision in Miami over Cuba's Omello AGRAMONTE. Calvin JACKSON, the piano-arranger genius who was on the way to stardom with MGM in Hollywood, returned to Harlem last fall, hung around for awhile, and then hiked to Canada where he has announced intentions of becoming a Canadian citizen. "Can't get a break in the land where I was born," he told me. Alma SMITH, the one-time lovely of the old GRAND TERRACE (Chicago) revue, is doing righteously with her roadhouse outside of Buffalo, N. Y. Oran (Hot Lips) PAGE, along with Tyree GLENN, the trombone wizard, and John (tenor sax) HARDEE, Corsicana, Texas' gifts to the music world, are keeping the LONE STAR STATE way out front in the jazz sphere, as are Illinois JACQUET and Arnett COBB. LIPS is in Boston at the COPELEY HOTEL.

Dubuque Coach Turns Down Game With Miss. School

Because the University of Dubuque puts more emphasis on human rights and less on sports than on sport-page headlines, the school's football team will not go on a Southern trip next fall.

Coach Moco Mercer turned down a date with Mississippi southern college when the Dixie school asked him to "leave colored boys off the team on your trip."

In Memoriam

MRS. ALBERTA MENDENHALL
MENDENHALL—In loving memory of our beloved mother, Mrs. Alberta Mendenhall, who departed this life three years ago, February 23, 1948.

Oh, we think of you, dear mother, And our hearts are sad with pain; Oh this world would be heaven Could we hear your voice again. You wore a crown of patience As you struggled on and on; A faithful one so kind and true, Dear Mother, how we long for you.

Sadly missed by children,
Stoughton F. Mendenhall,
Bert Mendenhall,
Rosamond Beasley.

BOARD—In loving memory of my daughter who passed away February 21, 1950.
One year has passed,
But sweet memories last.
Emma Martin, Mother.

MOORE—In loving memory of my dear husband, Marshall Moore, who passed away February 23, 1950.

In that blessed land called Heaven I pray we once more be united as we were on earth For all eternity.
Bertha Moore, Wife,
Carl Moore, Son,
Eris Taylor, Daughter.

THOMAS—In memory of our dear father, William (Jack) Thomas, who passed away one year ago February 21, 1950.
They say time heals all sorrow And helps us to forget,
But time so far has only proved How much we miss him yet.
Charles E. Thomas,
Harold Thomas, Sons.

WEAVER—In loving remembrance of our darling husband and father, Frank Weaver, who passed away February 19, 1945, at 1:30 p.m.
Sleep on and take your rest, recline your head on Glory's breast,
Sleep on you are not dead, you are just asleep
And now you are free from hate and strife.
Katie Weaver, Wife,
Betty Baldwin, Daughter,
Charles Weaver, Son.

WESLEY MAY MITCHELL PHELPS
PHELPS.—In loving memory of our daughter and sister, Wesley Mae Mitchell Phelps, who passed away February 23, 1948.
To have, to love and then to part, Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
Father, Mother, Brothers, and Sisters.

Card of Thanks

CAGE—We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their kindness shown us during the illness and death of our husband and father, William D. Cage. We especially thank Rev. W. H. Jones, C. Henry Bell and Rev. Hunt for their consoling remarks, the soloist and other participants, those who sent telegrams, cards, floral tributes and those who donated cars. Thanks to the C. M. C. Willis & Son Mortuary for efficient service rendered.
Mrs. Patsy Cage, Wife, and Children.

TURNER—We wish to extend our sincere thanks and appreciation for many kindnesses, messages of love, understanding, beautiful floral offerings, cars donated from our many friends, relatives and fellow-workers tendered at the death of our beloved wife and mother, Narcissus F. Turner. We especially thank the auxiliary of the New Bethel Baptist Church, and Rev. J. O. Clark, for his inspiring service, also the assisting minister, Rev. H. Hubbard, and the King and King Funeral Home.
Emmett Turner, Husband,
Sarah Woods,
Ruby Turner,
Lucille Payne,
Garfield Green, Children.

BELL—We are deeply grateful and appreciate the kindness, sympathy and many beautiful floral tributes extended by our good neighbors, relatives and friends at the passing of our beloved husband and father, Mr. Andrew Bell. We especially wish to thank Rev. A. D. Banks, officials of the Indianapolis Water Co., neighbors and King and King Funeral Home for their kind and efficient service.
Mrs. Fannie Bell,
Mrs. Frances Hughes.

No. B-81468.

Avis Frances Mills vs. Herbert Mills.
BE IT KNOWN, That on the 10th day of February, 1951, the above named plaintiff, by her attorneys, filed in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Marion County, in the State of Indiana, a complaint against the above named defendant Herbert Mills and the said plaintiff having also filed in said Clerk's office the affidavit of a competent person, showing that the residence of the defendant, upon diligent inquiry, is unknown, and the defendant Herbert Mills is not a resident of the State of Indiana, and that said cause of action is for Divorce and that the defendant is a necessary party thereto and whereas said plaintiff having by endorsement on said complaint required said defendant to appear in said Court and answer or demur thereto on the 10th day of April, 1951.

NOW, THEREFORE, by order of said Court, said defendant last above named is hereby notified of the filing and pendency of said complaint against him and that unless he appear and answer or demur thereto at the calling of said cause on the 10th day of April, 1951, the same being the 8th judicial day of a term of said Court,

Alabama Woman Feels Good Now; Thanks Hadacol

HADACOL Supplies Vitamins B-1, B-2, Niacin and Iron Which Her System Lacked.

When a person doesn't feel good, is nervous and run-down, has no appetite and can sleep,
they just don't feel like doing anything. Seems like it takes all the ambition out of them.

This is what
Mrs. Cora
Hurd, 1424
Pineleaf, Montgomery, Alabama, used to say, but now that she is taking HADACOL,
she says she has more energy and doesn't feel a bit run-down, suffering a deficiency of Vitamins B-1, B-2,
Niacin and Iron, which HADA-COL contains.

Here is Mrs. Hurd's own statement: "I had aches and pains for quite some time. They sure made me feel bad. I didn't feel like doing anything. My appetite wasn't good and I was run-down.
I heard about HADACOL over the radio and decided I wanted to try it. That's just what I did—bought a bottle and began taking it. After the second bottle I began to feel better. I have now taken 12 bottles and can truthfully say that HADACOL has certainly helped me. I have a good appetite and no longer feel run-down. I have more energy and my aches and pains have been greatly relieved. HADACOL is certainly wonderful. I just can't praise it enough."

Art Club In East Chicago Elects Officers For 1951

By RICHARD SHORTER

EAST CHICAGO.—The Junior Excelsior and Art club met recently in the home of Miss Pauline Lampkins and elected officers. They are Ida Daniels, president; Johnnie Mae Howard, first vice-president; Clara Marie Browning, second vice-president; Marian Smith, recording secretary; Delores Roberson, assistant secretary;
Lorraine Mitchell, corresponding secretary; Vanita Walton, financial secretary; Rose Smith, treasurer; Lillie Bell Ivey, parliamentarian; and Pauline Lampkins, auditor.

The group held its anniversary program on Wednesday night of last week in Antioch Baptist Church. The welcome was given by Dorinda Calhoun, and Vivian Riley of the Junior Modernette club gave the response. Members of the club sang their club song and an instrumental solo was given by Gwendolyn Tipps and a vocal solo by Argentina Beverly.
Officers were installed.

Mrs. Hattie Leonard is confined to St. Catherine's hospital where she will undergo an operation.
She is the former Miss Hattie Upshaw.

The local branch of the NAACP held its regular meeting on Wednesday of this week and made plans for the year's program.
Main objective is to make a complete survey of the city as concern employment of Negroes in all types of businesses. Other plans include the conducting of classes on voting. The branch has a sample voting machine which it will use. Classes will be conducted on the first and third Wednesday of each month in the Elks'
Rest. At request from the public, the classes will be held in churches, halls, club houses, etc.,
under supervision of the NAACP.

The branch will celebrate "NA-ACP Sunday" at Friendship Baptist Church next Sunday afternoon. Rev. Claude J. Allen, Garfield, will be principal speaker. He will be introduced by James McKinnie.
Also speaking will be Lester Bailey, assistant field director of the national office. Taking the offering and making the membership appeal will be Revs. Charles Proctor and W. B. Riddick. Dr.
E. L. C. Broomes, Fred D. Coker,
South Bend, director of branches of Indiana, will install the new officers. Music will be supplied by the choirs of Friendship and Antioch Baptist churches.

Miss Clara Marie Browning is being sponsored in a popularity contest being given by the City Federated Clubs. She represents the Junior Excelsior and Art club.

New Castle Pastor Talks On "Love"

NEW CASTLE.—Rev. Frank J.
Wilson, pastor of Bethel AME
Church, spoke on "Greater Love Hath No Man" at morning services last Sunday. A special feature of the service was a vocal solo by Arthur Thurman. The choir, under the direction of Mrs.
Donald Arney Sr., contributed much to the beauty of the service.

The quarterly conference was held in the afternoon, with Rev.
J. P. Q. Wallace, presiding elder of the Northwest District, in charge of the business session.
Very fine reports were made from each department of the church. At the close of the conference, Rev.
Wallace preached a stirring sermon. He was assisted in administering the Holy Communion by Rev. Wilson.

The Lula M. Hizer Missionary Society met in the patronage Sunday evening with the new president, Mrs. Marie Young, in charge. Mrs. Gurnie Roberts, chaplain, conducted devotions, and reports were heard from department heads. Plans were made for the Northeast Area meeting to be held in Bethel AME Church, Mundie, on Friday, March 9.

Elkhart Couple Have Anniversary

ELKHART.—Elder and Mrs. N.
P. Atkins celebrated their 32nd wedding anniversary last Saturday evening in their home, entertaining 32 guests. Among out-of-town guests were Aaron Curry and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilburn, Toledo.

Rev. A. A. Mays, Chicago, preached at the AME Church for the local NAACP branch last Thursday night.

Chester Shaw and Henry Let left Monday to join the Armed forces.

A revival is being conducted at the Church of God in Christ.
E. J. Curry and sister, Dorothy, pent a few days in New York City recently visiting his wife and daughter.

Miss Anna Jane Atkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Atkins, and Miss Rozella Shaw, daughter of Robert Shaw, participated in the candlelight capping service here recently. Miss Shaw completed a dental nurse's course, and Miss Atkins is taking a medical secretary's course.

Mrs. Mattie Scott and children are visiting in Detroit, attending her sister-in-law, Mrs. Callie Williams, who is ill.

News should be sent to Mrs.

Visit Relatives In Crawfordsville

CRAWFORDSVILLE.—Mr. and Mrs. David Burdett and daughter, Patricia, Lafayette, spent the week-end here visiting relatives and friends.

Eugene Robinson won a first place in the directing division of the district musical contest in Green-castle last week. While attending the contest Mrs. John Robinson fell and broke her wrist.
Mrs. Frank Robinson was called to the bedside of her mother in Danville, Ill., last week.

Miss Barbara Wilson entertained at a dinner party last Sunday.
Among guests were John Wesley
Marks and sister, Mrs. Nazerath
Phillips, Indianapolis; Sgts. E.
Crooks and P. McPherson, Camp
Atterbury; Glenn Davis, Champaign, Ill.; and Mr. and Mrs. W.
Bloney and M. Martin, Chicago.
Jodie Mitchell, Chester Churchill, Edward Robinson, and Jack Sweeney, Lebanon, were among those attending the dance in the Hoover Building in Terre Haute last week.

The Four Notes gave a program in Pilgrim's Chapel last Sunday morning.

CHISOX TO TAKE HAIRSTON, BOB BOYD TO SPRING CAMP

CHICAGO (ANP)—The Chicago White Sox, American League baseball club, will carry Bob Boyd, first sacker formerly with the Memphis Red Sox of the Negro American League, and Sam Hairston, catcher formerly of the Indianapolis Clowns club, in spring training.

Boyd players were bought last year by the White Sox to play with Colorado Springs, Western League, farm club of the White Sox.

Boyd has signed a contract with the White Sox. Chicago purchased him outright from the farm squad. If he does not make the grade, he probably will play with a club in the Pacific Coast League.

He will battle fancy-fielding Gordon Goldsberry and hard hitting Eddie Robinson for the first-base post with the Sox. The Chicago team has been seeking to sell Robinson, last year's first-sacker, to another club.

Negro Scout John Donaldson claims that Boyd is better than her of his two rivals and that he will outdo Larry Doby and Jackie Robinson in the major leagues.

Batted .373
Boyd batted .373 for Colorado Springs in 42 games, after hitting .357 for the Memphis Red Sox in the NAL.

He bats and throws left-handed. He is said to be one of only three left-handed batters who have pounded out a home run in the left-field stands at Comiskey Park in recent years. The other two are Doby and the great Ted Williams.

Hairston will train with the White Sox, but will be classified as a member of Colorado Springs. If he can make the grade he probably will remain with the major league team, otherwise he will return to Colorado Springs.

With Colorado Springs he batted .286 although he had led the NAL in hitting with a mark of .424 before being sold. Right now he is playing winter ball in the Venezuelan Winter League and is batting .373.

He will continue playing in the winter league until the season is over. Boyd will report to spring training March 1.

Abbe Wallace—Monarch's

D. C.—I am bringing my problem to you. Please help me. Why don't I have any friends. Five minutes after I walk into a room full of people, I am hated by everyone there and I know it. No one visits me.

Ans.—What a miserable existence you make for yourself with his foolish notion that you are despised by everyone. You mustn't let yourself feel this way. People are bound to shun you when you put it in a corner moping and feeling like a lost soul. If you can force yourself to spread good cheer and sunshine in place of gloom, these same people will bend a path to your door-step. Wait and see.

P. A. M.—I am worried and terribly upset and I don't know what to do. In December my sister moved in with my husband, family and self without an invitation of any notice at all. She is disagreeable and our home is upset all of the time now. I want her out.

Ans.—Some folks can't take hints (your sister for example) — they have to be bludgeoned to when they are not wanted. Explain to your sister as diplomatically as you can that... out she goes. Your husband's patience is nearing an end and if he ever explodes... he'll go out in a hurry... on the end of his boot. This is your responsibility, so don't ignore it any longer.

D. D. M.—Should I trust R. T. now that he has been freed? Or will he do like other fellows when they get away from home, find a girl every place he is seen?

Ans.—Not R. T. You're the gal for him. Don't be writing to you every day? Keep writing, he needs those letters and most of all your assurance of love. R. T. has visions of making you his wife, so live up to his expectations of how a sweetest girl in the world should behave while her sweetheart is in the army.

L. S.—I sold my home here in N. C. and I am moving in with my daughter in Florida. She lives in my winter home and has insisted that I come there permanently with her. I want to know if I should change the deed and put it in her name since I am to make my home with her? When would be the best time to do it?

Ans.—Instead of deeding the property to your daughter, will it go to her. In this way, you will retain ownership and the independence that goes with it while you live, and your daughter will be protected if anything should happen to you. Have a lawyer draw up the will for you.

L. H.—Tell me what I should do please as I am confused. Should I continue the work I am doing?

Ans.—And keep going deeper into the hole financially? No, friend, now is the time to go after a regular job—the kind of job you have always wanted. There are plenty of good openings available for one with your talents. Write for a private reply as to how to proceed in your quest for a better job.

NAACP REPORTS
FORT DIX ENDED

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Segregation at the reception center at Fort Dix, N. J., has been abolished, James C. Evans, civilian assistant to the Secretary of Defense, last week informed Clarence Mitchell, director of the Washington Bureau of the NAACP.

In a letter to the NAACP official under date of Feb. 13, Evans said he had been informed that the New Jersey army post "is now operating on an integrated basis. A single line now exists where two racially separate lines for inductees had been the practice. Likewise, the separate housing areas are being merged."
